Certain References and Information

This report is prepared for overseas investors and compiled based on the contents of the Annual Securities Report ("Yukashoken Hokokusho") of WACOAL HOLDINGS CORP. filed with the Director of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau of Japan on June 26, 2015.

As used in this report, unless the context otherwise requires, the "Company" and "Wacoal Holdings" refer to Wacoal Holdings Corp., and "Wacoal," "we," "us," "our" and similar terms refer to Wacoal Holdings Corp. and its consolidated subsidiaries. References to "U.S. dollars" or "$" are to the currency of the United States and references to "yen" or "$" are to the currency of Japan.

All financial statements and information contained in this report have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, or U.S. GAAP except where otherwise noted.

A Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements that are based on our current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about our company and our industry. You can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historic or current facts. The forward-looking statements discuss future expectations, identify strategies, contain projections of results of operations or of financial condition, or state other "forward-looking" information. In particular, the forward-looking statements may include statements relating to the impact of weak consumer spending in Japan and our other markets on our sales and profitability; the impact on our business of anticipated continued weakness of department stores and other general retailers in Japan; our ability to successfully develop, manufacture and market products in Japan and our other markets that meet the changing tastes and needs of consumers and to deliver high quality products; the highly competitive nature of our business and the strength of our competitors; our ability to successfully expand our network of our own specialty retail stores and achieve profitable operations at these stores; our ability to further develop our catalogue and Internet sales capabilities; our ability to effectively manage our inventory levels; our ability to reduce costs; our ability to recruit and maintain qualified personnel; effects of irregular weather events on our business and performance; risks related to conducting our business internationally; risks from acquisitions and other strategic transactions with third parties; risks relating to return of investment for the development of new markets; risks relating to intellectual property; risks relating to the protection of personal information and our confidential information; risks relating to internal controls over financial reporting; the impact of weakness in the Japanese equity markets on our holdings of Japanese equity securities; and the impact of any natural disaster or epidemic on our business. Forward-looking statements are contained in the sections entitled "II. [Business Overview . 4. [Risk Factors] " and elsewhere in this report.

The forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties. Information contained in the sections listed above and elsewhere in this annual report identifies factors that could cause our actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statement.

We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this annual report, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

3. [Description of Business]

Our corporate group consists of 1 holding company (Wacoal Holdings Corp.), 56 subsidiaries, and 10 affiliates, and is principally engaged in the manufacturing and wholesale distribution of innerwear (primarily women's foundation wear, lingerie, nightwear, and children's underwear), outerwear, sportswear, and other textile goods and related products, as well as the direct sale of certain products to consumers. Our corporate group also conducts business in the restaurant, culture, service, and interior design businesses.

The Company falls under the definition of "Specified Listed Companies" as prescribed under Paragraph 2, Article 49 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Restrictions on Securities Transactions, etc. For this reason, whether an incident is minor (and not a material fact) under the insider trading restrictions will be determined on the basis of consolidated figures.

Segment information and a summary of the various companies that make up our corporate group are as follows:

(1) Wacoal Business (Domestic)

This segment is composed of 13 companies, including our subsidiaries and affiliates in Japan.

Among 12 subsidiaries and 1 affiliate, Wacoal Corp. engages in the planning/designing for the above-mentioned products, procurement of materials for the above-mentioned products, commercialization of the semifinished products purchased from the sewing companies in Japan and overseas and other business associates after inspection, and distribution to the end consumers through department stores, general merchandisers, and other general retailers in Japan, as well as direct retail stores and distributors in Japan and overseas. Each of our 4 apparel manufacturing companies, including Kyushu Wacoal Manufacturing Corp., receives supply of raw materials from Wacoal Corp., conducts sewing and processing of innerwear and sportswear, and delivers the semifinished products to Wacoal Corp. We have 4 sales companies, including Une Nana Cool Corp., which conduct retail sales of innerwear, outerwear and swimsuit products.

(2) Wacoal Business (Overseas)

This segment is composed of 37 companies, including our overseas subsidiaries and affiliates.

Among our 30 overseas subsidiaries, 10 companies are located in North and Central America; 7 companies are located in Europe; and 13 companies are located in Asia/Oceania. 7 overseas affiliates are located in Asia.

Among our overseas subsidiaries in North and Central America, Wacoal Dominicana Corp., an apparel manufacturing company of innerwear products, ships its products to Wacoal America, Inc., a manufacturing and sales company, which supplies these products to the end consumers through local department stores and specialty retail stores. In addition, Eveden Inc, a sales company, distributes innerwear products, which are mainly supplied from Wacoal Timex LTD., Wacoal Emea LTD., and Eveden Huit SAS.

Among our 7 overseas subsidiaries in Europe, Eveden Huit SAS. designs and markets innerwear products. Eveden Limited distributes products to end consumers through department stores and specialty retail stores mainly in the United Kingdom.

Our 5 subsidiaries and 4 affiliates in Asia/Oceania are manufacturing and sales companies, which distribute products to end-consumers through their local department stores and specialty retail stores, and also distribute a part of their products to Wacoal Corp. and the sales companies in Asia. Our sales companies in Asia/Oceania include 5 subsidiaries, including Wacoal Singapore Private Ltd., Eveden Israel Ltd., and 1 affiliate. These sales companies distribute innerwear products, which are mainly supplied from the group companies, to their local department stores, specialty retail stores and direct retail stores. Our 3 remaining subsidiaries include a company that procures materials for subsidiaries and/or affiliates in Asia, and 2 investment companies which make investments in the local affiliates that manufacture and sell innerwear.

(3) Peach John Business

This segment is composed of 3 companies, including our domestic and overseas subsidiaries. The 1 domestic subsidiaries and 2 overseas subsidiaries are sales companies, and Peach John mainly engages in the retail sales of products that are independently supplied mainly from nongroup companies.

(4) Other

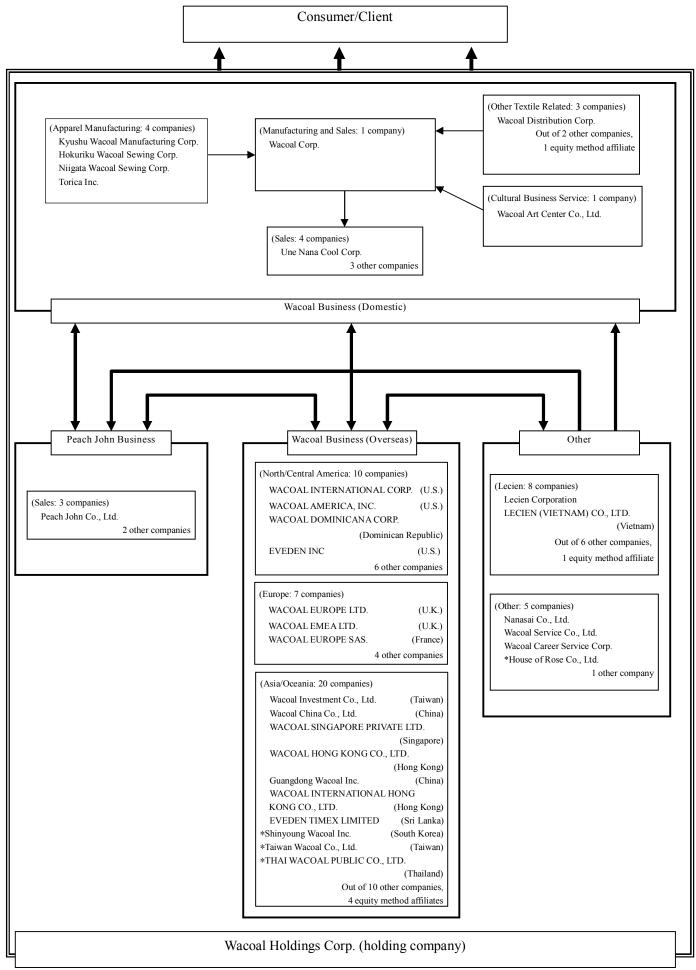

This segment is composed of a total of 13 companies, including 5 domestic subsidiaries, 6 overseas subsidiaries, 1 domestic affiliate, and 1 overseas affiliate.

Among 5 domestic subsidiaries, Nanasai Co., Ltd. ("Nanasai") engages in the manufacture and sale of mannequins and fixtures, and interior design work and Lecien Corporation engages in the manufacture and wholesale distribution of women's innerwear and clothing, lace, thread, and fabrics for handicrafts. Our 3 remaining subsidiaries include an apparel manufacturing company and 2 other subsidiaries which engage in other textile-related business, real estate leasing business, and other business.

Overseas, 6 subsidiaries are located in Asia.

Four of our subsidiaries in Asia are apparel manufacturing companies. The other 2 subsidiaries engage in the manufacture and sale of mannequins and fixtures, interior design work, and other textile-related business.

II. Business Overview

1. [Summary of Business Results]

(1) Summary of Operations

Our group entered the second year of our three-year mid-term plan (from fiscal year 2014 to fiscal year 2016), and we (primarily Wacoal Corp., our core operating entity) made efforts to expand our share of sales while responding to the diversifying domestic women's innerwear market, establish a system for our business other than the women's innerwear business and strengthen growth by actively developing our overseas business.

As a result of the above, with respect to our consolidated business results for fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, overall sales fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to a weak demand affected by pullbacks in consumer spending after the consumption tax increase and the influence of rising prices associated with the weakening yen, mainly with regard to our core operating entity, Wacoal Corp., despite the fact that sales from our overseas business were inflated by the sharp depreciation of the yen. In terms of profit, operating income fell largely below the results for the corresponding period of the previous fiscal year due to a decrease in sales and due to the impact of impairment charges of 6,021 million yen as a result of the reassessment of the fair value of our Peach John business.

Net Sales: 191,765 million yen

(a decrease of 1.0% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Operating income: 7,082 million yen

(a decrease of 48.9% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Pre-tax net income: 11,342 million yen

(a decrease of 24.6% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Net income attributable to Wacoal

Holdings Corp.:

8,444 million yen

(a decrease of 16.4% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

The following is a summary of operations by operating segment.

(i) Wacoal Business (Domestic)

In our domestic business, we sought to focus on five categories (region, age-group, pricing, restructuring of manufacturing domain and inventory control) and established a system to enhance customer contact and respond to changes in the external environment.

However, our overall business faced difficult operating conditions due to the influence of a delay in recovery of personal consumption after the consumption tax increase after the beginning of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, despite a recovery in demand for certain high-priced products.

Overall sales from our Wacoal brand business fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the poor performance of our core brassiere products and bottom products, despite steady performance of newly-launched exclusive brand products intended for a single channel exclusively, pre-stage brand products and brand products for seniors.

In our Wing brand business, although sales were strong for our new bottom products sold in the autumn and winter and undergarments with highly seasonal functionality meeting the needs of our consumers, overall sales fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the weak performance of our core brassieres products because we were unable to achieve brand recognition as a result of discontinuing our TV commercials and because we were unable to achieve product differentiation from other competing products.

In our retail business, sales from our directly managed retail store, AMPHI, which is mainly located in shopping malls, showed favorable performance as a result of improved customer traffic which we achieved by trying new strategies, including holding various monthly events and making collaboration products with models and stylists. We were also successful in handling inbound customer service by increasing duty-free stores with respect to our Wacoal Factory Store in outlet malls, and as a result, overall sales exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year.

In our wellness business, sales of our sports conditioning wear "CW-X" brand were weak as our renovations of store displays and investments in contracts with top athletes did not have an immediate effect. In addition, although shop sales of certain products jointly developed with a major pharmaceutical company performed favorably, this favorable performance did not boost our overall sales. As a result, overall sales largely fell below the results for the previous fiscal year.

In our catalog sales business, sales from our catalog products were weak for the entire season. With respect to our internet sales, our initiatives to strengthen web advertisement to recover momentum which had been influenced by the shutdown of our website in April, did not have much effect, and as a result, overall sales fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year.

In summary, overall sales attributable to our "Wacoal Business (Domestic)" segment fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to poor sales from Wacoal Corp., our core operating entity, which fell below the results from the previous fiscal year. With respect to profitability, our operating income also fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year largely due to decreased sales, despite our efforts at Wacoal Corp. to reduce selling, general and administrative expenses and to hold down an increase in processing charges and purchasing costs, which were impacted by the weak yen.

Net Sales: 112,203 million yen

(a decrease of 5.0% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Operating income: 8,444 million yen

(a decrease of 9.0% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

(ii) Wacoal Business (Overseas)

In the United States, Wacoal America Inc. made efforts to achieve strong profits by expanding its share in the high-end market and through streamlining development production structure. While sales at department stores continue to be weak, overall sales on a local currency basis exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of strong performance of our core brassieres products, the launch of our new Europe Collection in January, and expanding sales from internet sales and sales from our business in surrounding countries. In terms of profit, operating income exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year due to an increase in net sales.

With respect to our business in China (from January 1 to December 31), we made efforts in improving profitability by enhancing gross margin rate, as well as nurturing of brands targeting the middle-class market. Although sales of our high-priced brand products at department stores performed poorly due to the effects of laws regulating expenditures, sales on a local currency basis remained unchanged from the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of an increase in the number of shops which handle LA ROSABELLE, our brand targeting the middle-class market, and strong internet sales. In terms of profit, gross margin rate significantly improved as a result of achieving a higher local procurement rate and the expansion of bargain products in internet sales and outlet malls. In addition, operating income largely exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of the discontinuation of underperforming shops and strategic arrangement of employees.

With respect to Wacoal Europe, we made efforts in expanding our Wacoal brand business and in developing management infrastructure so that Wacoal Europe can play a central role in our business in Europe by promoting collaboration with Wacoal America, Inc. Sales in the United Kingdom showed strong performance as a result of the recovery of sales at department stores and the expansion of our Wacoal brand products, despite a decrease in the number of tourists visiting from Russia and the Middle East. On the other hand, sales in the Euro area, particularly in France, showed weak performance due to slow consumer spending affected by economic instability in Europe. In addition, sales from department stores in the United States showed poor performance partially due to changes of MD policy by certain clients. As a result, sales on a local currency basis fell below the results for the previous fiscal year, but sales on a yen converted basis exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year due to the sharp depreciation of the yen. In terms of profit, operating income largely fell below the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of both decreased sales and costs incurred in connection with changes in the structure of our business in Europe.

As a result of the above, overall sales and operating income under the "Wacoal Business (Overseas)" segment largely exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year.

Net Sales: 48,107 million yen

(an increase of 10.2% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Operating income: 4,776 million yen

(an increase of 18.3% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

(iii) Peach John Business

With respect to our Peach John business, we made efforts to expand sales by increasing the number of customers. Our efforts in making our website more user-friendly did not significantly contribute to the expansion of sales and sales of our outerwear products and general merchandise showed weak performance. As a result, sales from our core mail-order catalogues fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year, despite stable sales of innerwear which remained unchanged from the previous fiscal year. Net sales attributable to our domestic direct retail stores exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of the increasing number of shop openings, including the introduction of our new business-style shops targeting young adults and career professionals. With respect to our overseas business, despite our favorable performance in Hong Kong resulting from shop openings and an increase in the number of customers, sales fell below the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of poor performance of our directly-managed stores in China.

As a result of the above, overall sales from our Peach John business fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year. In terms of profit, we recorded a significant operating loss due to decreased sales, higher cost rate which was impacted by the weak yen, and impairment charges on goodwill and other intangible assets.

Net Sales: 11,626 million yen

(a decrease of 6.9% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Operating deficit: 6,296 million yen

(as compared to 83 million yen of operating income incurred for the previous fiscal year)

(iv) Other

With respect to our business under the "Other" segment, we made efforts in establishing a stable profit structure and in strengthening management bases.

With respect to the business of Lecien Corporation ("Lecien"), although sales from our material business showed favorable performance as a result of new transactions, overall sales from Lecien fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the weak performance of our core innerwear business division, as well as our apparel business division. In terms of profit, although profitability is improving as a result of the full operation of a factory at our overseas subsidiaries, we recorded an operating loss as a result of a lower gross margin rate due to higher processing charges and purchasing costs, which were impacted by the weak yen, in addition to the influence of decreased sales.

As for Nanasai Co., Ltd. ("Nanasai"), which engages in manufacturing, sales and rentals of mannequins and interior design and construction of stores at commercial facilities, while the sales business performed poorly, sales from the rental business exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of new transactions. Sales from the construction business also showed strong performance as a result of an increase in the number of orders received from clients, and as a result, overall sales exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year. In terms of profit, operating income fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the influence of the higher cost rate in the construction business.

As a result of the above, with respect to the overall sales and operating income attributable to our "Other" segment, overall sales exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year, while operating income fell largely below the results for the previous fiscal year.

Net Sales: 19,829 million yen

(an increase of 1.3% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

Operating income: 158 million yen

(a decrease of 65.4% as compared to the previous fiscal year)

The following is a summary of operations by region:

(i) Japan

With respect to Wacoal Corp., overall sales fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to weak demand affected by pullbacks in consumer spending after the consumption tax increase and the influence of rising prices associated with the weakening yen. In terms of profit, operating income also fell below the results for the previous fiscal year largely due to decreased sales, despite our efforts to reduce selling, general and administrative expenses and to hold down an increase in costs.

With respect to Peach John, while sales attributable to our domestic direct retail stores increased as a result of the increasing number of shop openings, overall sales fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the weak performance of our core mail-order catalogues. In terms of profit, we recorded an operating loss due to decreased sales and a higher cost rate which was impacted by the weak yen.

With respect to the business of Lecien Corporation ("Lecien"), although sales from our material business showed favorable performance as a result of new transactions, overall sales fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the weak performance of our core women's innerwear and outerwear products. In terms of profit, we recorded an operating loss as a result of a higher cost rate which was impacted by the weak yen, in addition to the influence of decreased sales.

As for Nanasai Co., Ltd. ("Nanasai"), while the sales business performed poorly, overall sales exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of new transactions in the rental business and an increase in the number of orders received from clients in the construction business. In terms of profit, operating income fell below the results for the previous fiscal year due to the influence of the higher cost rate in the construction business.

As a result of the above, sales from our business in Japan amounted to 143,250 million yen, a decrease of 4.3% compared to the previous fiscal year.

(ii) Asia/Oceania

With respect to Wacoal China, although sales of our high-priced brand products at department stores performed poorly, sales on a local currency basis remained unchanged from the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of an increase in the number of shops which handle LA ROSABELLE, our brand targeting the middle-class market, and strong internet sales. In terms of profit, operating income largely exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year due to the improved profitability that resulted from achieving a higher local procurement rate, discontinuation of underperforming shops and strategic arrangement of employees.

With respect to the directly-managed overseas stores of Peach John, while sales in Hong Kong showed favorable performance as a result of shop openings and an increase in the number of customers, sales in China showed poor performance.

As a result of the above, sales from our business in Asia/Oceania amounted to 16,261 million yen, an increase of 9.3% as compared to the previous fiscal year.

(iii) Europe/North America

With respect to Wacoal America Inc., sales on a local currency basis exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of the strong performance of our core brassieres products, and expanding sales from Internet sales and sales from our business in surrounding countries. In terms of profit, operating income also exceeded the results for the previous fiscal year due to an increase in net sales.

With respect to Wacoal Europe, sales in the United Kingdom showed strong performance as a result of the expansion of our Wacoal brand products, while sales in the Euro area, particularly in France, showed weak performance due to the influence of economic instability in Europe. Sales from department stores in North America showed poor performance partially due to changes of MD policy by certain clients.

As a result, sales on a local currency basis fell below the results for the previous fiscal year. In terms of profit, operating income largely fell below the results for the previous fiscal year as a result of decreased sales and costs incurred in connection with changes in the structure of our business in Europe.

As a result of the above, sales from our business in Europe/North America amounted to 32,254 million yen, an increase of 10.5% as compared to the previous fiscal year.

(2) Cash Flow Status

The balance of cash and cash equivalents at the end of fiscal year 2015 was 38,410 million yen, an increase of 7,752 million yen as compared to the end of the previous fiscal year.

(Cash flow provided by operating activities)

Cash flow provided by operating activities during the fiscal year 2015 was 14,337 million yen, an increase of 5,388 million yen as compared to the previous fiscal year, which reflects the result after adjusting the net income of 8,744 million yen for depreciation expenses and deferred taxes, as well as changes in assets and liabilities.

(Cash flow provided by investing activities)

Cash flow provided by investing activities during the fiscal year 2015 was 164 million yen, a decrease of 1,494 million yen as compared to the previous fiscal year, despite the acquisition of certain fixed assets, due to proceeds from the sale and redemption of marketable securities and income from the sale of painting.

(Cash flow used in financing activities)

Cash flow used in financing activities during the fiscal year 2015 was 8,391 million yen, an increase of 2,837 million yen as compared to the previous fiscal year, due to the cash dividend payments and repayment of short-term bank loans (less than three months).

2. [Production, Orders Received, and Sales]

(1) Production Results

Our consolidated production results by operating segment for fiscal year ended March 2015 are as follows. No data is available for the Peach John Business since all of its entities are sales companies. The production results for other segment are not shown since it is hard to define such term in this segment.

Name of Operating Segment	Amount (Millions of yen)	Changes as Compared to Previous Fiscal Year (%)
Wacoal Business (Domestic)	48,247	97.1
Wacoal Business (Overseas)	12,809	106.2
Total	61,056	98.9

(Note) The amount of operation results is based on the manufacturing costs and does not include consumption tax, etc.

(2) Orders Received

Among the Other segment, the department of Nanasai, which handles interior design and construction of general housings and stores at commercial facilities, adopts the build-to-order production system.

The status of orders received for other segment for fiscal year ended March 2015 is as follows:

Name of Operating Segment	Amount of Orders	Changes as Compared	Balance of Amount of	Changes as Compared
	Received	to Previous Fiscal	Orders Received	to Previous Fiscal
	(Millions of ven)	Year (%)	(Millions of ven)	Year (%)
Other	6,071	110.4	65	23.3

(Note) 1 None of the purchasers' sales accounts for 10% or more of the total sales results.

2 The amounts in the above table do not include consumption tax, etc.

3. [Management Issues]

(1) Business and Financial Issues to Address

Maintaining and/or expanding sales and profits from our domestic business is an essential factor for our group's sustainable growth. The environment surrounding the domestic women's innerwear market is becoming very difficult due to factors including rising prices impacted by the weak yen and the consumption tax increase, associated changes in consumer purchasing behavior, and a decreasing trend in the number of the working population in the future. On the other hand, a rise in consumption by wealthy segments of the population encouraged by high stock prices, a growth in inbound consumption due to an increase in the number of tourists visiting Japan, and women's participation and success in society, are good opportunities for us to create new values. Under this external environment, we will revitalize the entire market as a leader in the industry, and make investments to enhance customer contact. In terms of product strategy, we will expand high volume products and maintain a high value-added market, and strengthen our approach to the first-bra age group and senior customers by using our own data and know-how which we gained from our longtime research and development. We will also review our sales organization in order to gain more sales opportunities and will make efforts to seize market share in those regions where our market share remains low or zero. For the purpose of increasing inbound sales, we will build a system that can take advantage of opportunities to develop pre-stage brand products and enrich sales and services.

In addition, there is an urgent need for us to develop new business lines besides our domestic women's innerwear business. We will establish a new business line which can effectively utilize our nationwide distribution channels and our unique research and development capabilities, as well as our technical expertise so that it can become our second pillar of sales.

We consider our overseas business as our group's biggest growth engine. An accurate understanding of the social environment and consumers' needs in each country and region the establishment of community-based product and marketing strategies will be essential for us to achieve our aim to become a "Wacoal of the World". We will establish a sustainable and highly profitable structure by aggressively promoting the centralization of the management system for our business in Europe, expanding business through our new sales channel in the United States, expanding sales of our new brand products targeting the middle-class market and improving the earnings ratio for our business in China.

We are also facing challenges in an increasingly difficult external environment for manufacturing due to increasing salary in Asian countries and rising prices of raw materials. In light of these challenges, we will build a production structure which enables us to maintain and enhance the competitiveness of our products and to maintain a stable supply, while expanding our supply chain globally.

By reinforcing such operating foundations and developing our infrastructure, we will be able to strengthen our management practices so as to be able to cope with environmental change which we expect will eventually lead to further growth.

(2) Basic Policies on the Nature of Personnel who should Control the Determination of Financial and Business Policies of Wacoal Holdings Corp.

Basic policies on the nature of personnel who should control the determination of financial and business policies of Wacoal Holdings Corp. have been prescribed as follows as of the filing date of this report (June 26, 2015).

(i) Details of Basic Policy

Since our establishment in 1949, we have strived to develop a domestic market for female innerwear (undergarments), penetrate the global market, and establish our business with the aim of creating a global company through a 50-year long-term management plan based on our business objectives of making and helping women in becoming beautiful and facilitating the realization of women's desire to be beautiful. Moreover, as a leading female innerwear company, we have developed the Wacoal brand, which has become widely accepted by both domestic and international consumers.

Our corporate value is mainly generated from (i) our strong market position and brand value in the intimate apparel market, which has been cultivated over a long period of time; (ii) our ability to develop highly functional, high value-added, attractive products based on the results of human scientific research from a medium- to long-term perspective; (iii) our superb product quality and supporting technical staff, as well as our highly productive global manufacturing and supply systems that use excellent sewing technology; (iv) our close personal relationships with distributors in various sales channels, which link us with consumers; (v) the trust of consumers that has been gained through direct communication and sales by our beauty advisers, who have a sound knowledge of our products and a wealth of sales experience; and (vi) our good social standing established through the promotion of various social action programs, such as the "Remmama" project and "Pink Ribbon" activities, and our corporate value and the common interests of our shareholders will suffer unless these "Wacoal strengths" are secured over the medium to long term. We, therefore, believe that personnel who control the determination of financial and business policies must fully understand these considerations and must be capable of securing and enhancing the corporate value and the common interests of our shareholders over the medium to long term.

We will not uniformly reject an acquisition of a substantial shareholding of the Company, if it contributes to the corporate value and the common interests of our shareholders. However, there are many acquisitions of substantial shareholdings of companies that do not contribute to the corporate value of the target company or the common interests of our shareholders. For example, this is the case where it is clear from the purpose of the acquisition that it will cause damage to the corporate value of the target company or the common interests of our shareholders -- where it is likely that the shareholders are in effect being forced to sell their shares, where insufficient time or information is given for the Board of Directors and the shareholders of the target company to consider the conditions of the acquisition or for the Board of Directors of the target company to make an alternative proposal, or where it is necessary for the target company to negotiate with the prospective purchaser to obtain conditions that are more favorable than those proposed by the prospective purchaser.

In light of these circumstances, we believe that it is essential that we be ready at all times to implement a system that will prevent any acquisition that is contrary to the corporate value or the common interests of our shareholders by enabling our shareholders to determine whether or not to accept such an acquisition and enabling our Board of Directors to secure any necessary information and time to make an alternative proposal or to negotiate with the prospective purchaser on behalf of our shareholders at the time of an acquisition of our shares.

(ii) Specific Details of Efforts

- Special efforts toward ensuring effective use of company assets, appropriate formation of group companies, and implementation of other basic policies

(Efforts to improve corporate value)

We were restructured as a holding company in 2005 in order to realize our medium- and long-term strategies to further enhance our corporate value, and further, we are promoting expansion of domestic and overseas business (including through Mergers and Acquisitions deals), making efforts to improve profitability, and working to secure and enhance the corporate value and common interests of our shareholders under the medium-term and fiscal year management policies.

We will continue to conduct our business operations in order to build "Wacoal" as an enduring corporate brand while improving Wacoal's strengths that form the basis of our corporate value as described in Section (i) above, and being mindful of our objectives in making and helping women in becoming beautiful, and facilitating the realization of women's desire to be beautiful.

As part of our mid-term policy under the mid-term plan which we implemented in 2013, we are working to enhance our corporate value by (i) reaffirming and practicing our management philosophy, (ii) progressing toward being a global company, (iii) strengthening collective group resources through collaboration among the foreign and domestic group companies, (iv) strengthening our management practices so that we can cope with environmental change, and (v) promoting CSR activities by our group. In terms of our business, we aim to achieve sales of 200,000 million yen and operating income of 14,000 million yen by expanding our share of sales in the diversifying domestic women's innerwear market, developing new business lines besides our women's innerwear business, and strengthening growth potential by actively promoting our overseas business.

(Measures to Enhance Corporate Governance)

The purpose and basic policy of our group's corporate governance is to continuously enhance our corporate value by increasing transparency and securing the fairness and independence of our corporate management from the perspective of all stakeholders, including our shareholders and customers.

The following bodies and systems have been established within the Company with the aim of enhancing our corporate governance, and the entire Company is also working toward this goal.

As of March 31, 2015, our Board of Directors is composed of seven Directors. The board makes decisions on matters concerning important business, such as management policy and management strategy and matters stipulated by laws or ordinances or our Articles of Incorporation. Two of these seven Directors are independent Outside Directors who give our Board of Directors advice and guidance from an objective perspective based on their wealth of experience and knowledge of management and business. The term of office of each Director is one year, and we are further clarifying the responsibilities of our management to our shareholders. Further, with respect to the nomination, promotion, and remuneration of Directors, an "Executive Compensation Advisory Committee," whose members include Outside Directors has been established, and operates with a high degree of transparency and fairness.

We use an "Audit & Supervisory Board Member system," and our Audit & Supervisory Board consists of five Audit & Supervisory Board Members, of which three are Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members, as of March 31, 2015. The function of our Audit & Supervisory Board is to monitor and supervise our management.

Further, all of the two Outside Directors and three Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members have been designated as our independent officers, and have been notified to the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

Wacoal Corp., our core business company, has adopted an executive officer system in order to separate management supervision and management execution. "Group Management Rules" and "Group Accounting Rules" have been established for Wacoal Corp. and all other group companies, and each group company conducts our business operations in accordance with both sets of rules

Further, the "Group Management Meeting" of our group that is composed of our Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members has been established in the Company. This meeting considers matters concerning the management strategy of our group and other important management issues, and conducts preliminary reviews of matters for review by our Board of Directors together with the "Wacoal Senior Management Meeting," which involves Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and senior executive officers of Wacoal Corp.

Further, the "Quarterly Business Results Review Committee" has been established under the "Group Management Meeting." Every quarter, our Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and executive officers of Wacoal Corp. attend meetings of the Quarterly Business Results Review Committee and review the business results of each company and business department. Also, under the "Group Management Meeting," we have established the "Group Strategy Committee," where the managers of our group's major companies in Japan and overseas, in addition to the attendees of the "Group Management Meeting," attend meetings of the Group Strategy Committee and share management issues and review important matters.

In addition, the "Corporate Ethics Committee" and "Risk Management Committee" have each been established as committees of the entire Company. Under these committees, the "Compliance Division," "Quality Assurance Division," "Accident and Disaster Measures Division," and "Environmental Division" have each been established, and each of these divisions is ready to enhance corporate value and respond to risks of loss in each field. These divisions report to our Board of Directors from time to time on the status of their activities.

- Measures to prevent inappropriate persons from controlling the determination of financial and business policies in light of the basic policy

For the purpose of securing and enhancing corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders of the Company, the Company determined the basic policy for preventive measures to be taken against the acquisition of a substantial shareholding of the Company (i.e., defensive measures against takeovers) at an ordinary general meeting of shareholders held on June 28, 2012. The Board of Directors determined and updated specific measures at the meeting held on the same day (which were introduced on June 29, 2006). Because these measures were terminated upon expiration of a three-year term, the Company, at an ordinary general meeting of shareholders held on June 26, 2015, obtained approval for a resolution to review and determine details again of the basic policy (hereinafter called "Basic Policy on Defensive Measures against Takeovers") of revised preventive measures to be taken against the acquisition of a substantial shareholding of the Company (i.e., defensive measures against takeovers), and the Board of Directors determined and updated the specific measures based on the Basic Policy on Defensive Measures against Takeovers (hereinafter called "the Plan") at a meeting held on the same day.

The Plan enables the Company's shareholders, in the event of purchase or any similar act or a proposal to purchase the Company's share certificates (hereinafter called "Purchase"), to determine whether or not to accept such offer for the Company's shares, and enables its Board of Directors to secure any necessary information and sufficient time to propose alternatives or to negotiate and consult with a person who purchases (hereinafter called "Purchaser") on behalf of its shareholders, in order to prevent a Purchase of the Company's shares that is detrimental to its corporate value or its shareholders' common interests, and to secure and enhance its corporate value and the common interests of its shareholders.

The Plan covers a Purchase that falls under ① or ② below:

- ① purchase of share certificates issued by the Company that results in 20% or greater ownership by a shareholder of such share certificates; or
- 2 public tender offer for share certificates issued by the Company that results in combined ownership by the offeror and/or any of its affiliates of 20% or more of such share certificates.

If a Purchaser intends to launch a Purchase of the shares of the Company, such Purchaser will be requested to submit to the Company a document describing the information required to consider details of the Purchase, as well as an oath by such Purchaser that such Purchaser will follow the procedures prescribed by the Plan. Accordingly, the information provided by the Purchaser; the opinion of the Board of Directors; or any supporting materials, alternative proposals (if any), or other information and/or materials will be submitted to the Independent Committee, which consists of three members who are independent from the management operating the Company, and the Independent Committee will evaluate and/or examine such information and/or materials. If need be, the Independent Committee will also separately obtain advice from independent experts and evaluate and/or examine the terms and conditions of the Purchase, consider the alternatives presented by the Board of Directors, and negotiate with the Purchaser or disclose information to the shareholders.

If (A) the Purchaser fails to follow the procedures as prescribed by the Plan or if (B) the Purchase is deemed to fall under any of the requirements as prescribed by the Plan as a result of the examination of the terms and conditions of the Purchase or discussions and/or negotiations with the Purchaser, and if implementation of a free allocation of stock acquisition rights is considered appropriate, the Independent Committee will advise the Board of Directors to implement a free allocation of stock acquisition rights. The Board of Directors will pay the utmost respect to the advice provided by the Independent Committee, and will resolve to implement the free allocation of the stock acquisition rights. The Company will implement a free allocation of the share acquisition rights to those shareholders, other than the Company, who are registered or recorded in the Company's final register of shareholders as of the allocation date that is determined separately, at such rate, as separately determined, up to a maximum of two stock acquisition rights for every one common stock of the Company held. Also, even when the Purchase by the Purchaser is considered to fall under either (A) or (B) above, if the Independent Committee considers it necessary to obtain the approval at an ordinary general meeting of shareholders for implementation of a free allocation of stock acquisition rights, the Independent Committee may advise the Board of Directors to do so. In this case, the Board of Directors, in principle, shall promptly convene an ordinary general meeting of shareholders so that a meeting can be held within the shortest time practically possible and submit a resolution for the implementation of a free allocation of stock acquisition rights.

The holder of stock acquisition rights for the subscription of new shares (with terms that prohibit the Purchaser and certain people (hereinafter called "Nonqualified person") from exercising such rights) is entitled to receive one share of the Company by paying the amount determined by the Board of Directors or the ordinary general meeting of shareholders in the resolution on the free allocation of stock acquisition rights, which shall be at least one yen (¥1) but not exceeding one-half (1/2) of the fair value of one share of the Company. Also, the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights held by shareholders other than the Nonqualified Person, and in exchange, deliver one share of the Company for every stock acquisition right.

Promptly after passing a resolution by the Board of Directors or by an ordinary general meeting of shareholders with regard to implementation or non implementation of the above-mentioned free allocation of stock acquisition rights, the Board of Directors will disclose the outline of such resolution and other information deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors.

As with the effective period of the Basic Policy on Defensive Measures against Takeovers, the effective period of the Plan will expire upon conclusion of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held during the last fiscal year ending within three years after the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 26, 2015. However, the Plan may be changed or terminated to reflect the change made to the Basic Policy on Defensive Measures against Takeovers by and pursuant to the resolution of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders, if the change or termination of the Basic Policy on Defensive Measures against Takeovers is resolved by an ordinary general meeting of shareholders. Further, the Plan will be terminated if so resolved by the Board of Directors.

There will be no direct, concrete impact on the shareholders caused by the Plan's introduction, provided the free allocation of stock acquisition rights is not implemented. On the other hand, if the free allocation of stock acquisition rights is implemented according to the Plan, the overall value of the shares held by the shareholders may be diluted if the procedures for exercising stock acquisition rights are not followed. However, no dilution of the overall value of the shares held will take place if the shares are provided in consideration of stock acquisition rights acquired by the Company.

(iii) Judgment of Board of Directors as to Efforts under Section (ii) above and Reasons Thereof

As stated in Section (ii) above, the Plan was introduced in line with the Basic Policy mentioned in Section (i) above for the purposes of securing or enhancing corporate value and the common interests of shareholders. In particular, highly rational fairness and/or objectivity is ensured under the Plan because (i) the Plan focuses on shareholders' intentions such that the effective period is prescribed as three years, and the Plan may be terminated at any time by a resolution of the Board of Directors or a resolution of an ordinary general meeting of the shareholders to terminate the Basic Policy on Defensive Measures against Takeovers; (ii) the Plan establishes reasonably objective requirements, and a free allocation of stock acquisition rights is not implemented unless these requirements are met; (iii) the Independent Committee shall consist of independent persons; (iv) a free allocation of stock acquisition rights under the Plan may not be initiated unless a judgment is made by the Independent Committee; and (v) the Independent Committee may obtain advice from independent experts at the expense of the Company. The Plan is formulated to maintain corporate value, which is aligned with the common interests of the shareholders. It is not intended to maintain the status of the corporate officers of the Company.

4. [Risk Factors]

Our business, performance, and financial condition are subject to risks and uncertainties, including those described in the risk factors below. These risks and uncertainties could result in a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition, and a material decline in the trading price of our common stock.

Forward-looking statements in this report are made based on information available as of the end of fiscal year 2015.

(1) We may be adversely affected by the domestic and global economy

During fiscal year 2015, the Japanese market accounted for approximately 74.7% of our net sales, and the United States and European markets accounted for approximately 16.8%. In the major markets in which we operate, any weakness or deterioration in the economy may have a material adverse effect on our sales, results of operations and financial condition.

(2) Continued difficulties faced or changes in business policies made by department stores, general merchandisers, and other general retailers in Japan would hurt our business

In fiscal year 2015, a substantial majority of our net sales were generated in department stores, general merchandisers, and other general retailers in Japan. Due to the ongoing structural change in the retail market, however, we expect that the share of sales from department stores, general merchandisers and other general retailers in the overall retail market will remain weak and may continue to decline.

If the business of one or more of our important general retail customers fails as a result of continued weakness in the department stores, general merchandise and other general retail sector, such a business failure may result not only in decreased sales, but we may also be unable to collect some or all of our outstanding accounts receivable from such customers.

Likewise, increased consolidation of Japanese department stores and general merchandisers in preparation for a shrinking market due to the future anticipated decrease in the population of Japan may allow our customers to increase their bargaining power in negotiating pricing and other terms of trade. Any change in business policy by Japan's leading retailers would have an adverse impact on our performance, such as net sales or return on sales.

(3) Our sales may decline if we are unable to effectively anticipate and respond to consumer tastes and preferences and deliver high-quality products

Customer tastes and fashion trends change continuously and are difficult to predict. If we are unable to successfully anticipate or respond to changing styles or trends, and if we lose the support of our customers, we may be unable to achieve our sales targets and our financial results would suffer as a result.

In addition, our brand image may suffer if we misjudge the market or sell defective merchandise causing customers to believe that we are not able to offer attractive fashions and top-quality products. If any event were to occur that harms our reputation for producing high-quality products, our sales, operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

(4) The apparel market is highly competitive, and our share of sales or profitability may decline if we are unable to maintain our competitiveness

In the domestic innerwear market, in addition to competition from wholesalers and direct retailers in the mid- to highend undergarment market in Japan, we must also compete against catalog and Internet sales and new entrants to the intimate apparel market, including mass-market and specialty apparel companies, as well as non-store retailing.

An important factor affecting the competitive environment in our industry in recent years has been a trend towards lower prices. Our strategy of focusing on the higher end of the intimate apparel market may help us avoid potential negative effects of such trends on our business and performance, including possible loss of market share and reduced profitability. However, we are affected by these competitive trends and our strategy may not be successful.

Additionally, we continue to be challenged by the emergence of new and competitive retail concepts in the Japanese intimate apparel industry, which target consumers through catalogue marketing, e-commerce, and other means. Increased competition could result in price reductions, increased marketing expenditures, and loss of sales volume and market share, all of which could have a material adverse effect on our sales, financial condition, and operating results.

(5) Expansion of our specialty retail store may not lead to improved sales and profits

Further investment is necessary in order to expand our specialty retail store business, including expenses for the development of new stores and the closure of underperforming stores, and improvement expenses for the specialty retail store brand. While we continue to make efforts in improving profitability, if new shops fail to secure the expected sales levels, if expenses such as shop rent or personnel costs increase due to changes in the market environment, or if the specialty retail store brand fails to be popular with customers, we may not be able to make sufficient gains to recover the investment.

(6) We may experience difficulties in successfully increasing our catalogue and Internet sales

We believe that our catalogue and Internet sales will be increasingly important in achieving sales growth, and we are seeking to strengthen our capabilities in these channels. We also believe that we need to make further investments in systems for Internet sales in order to expand the Internet sales of our entire group. However, as the system environment surrounding our catalogue and Internet sales evolves rapidly, we cannot predict whether our accumulated investments would contribute to the benefit of the entire group. We may not be successful in increasing our catalog and Internet sales sufficiently to compensate for continued flat or declining sales through our core general retailer channel.

(7) We are subject to excess of inventory risks that could negatively affect our operating results

Fluctuations in the demand for our products may affect the inventory we own because we usually manufacture our products well in advance of the applicable season and sometimes before fashion trends are identified or evidenced by consumer purchases. If we are unable to successfully anticipate or respond to changing styles or trends and misjudge the market for our products or any new product lines, our sales will suffer and we may be faced with significant amounts of unsold inventory. In response, we may be forced to reduce our product prices, increase our marketing promotions, or revalue our inventory, which could have a material adverse effect on our sales, results of operations, and financial condition.

(8) We may not be successful with cost reduction

Reducing our cost of conducting business is a key element of our strategy to improve our profitability and business performance, particularly in the coming years during which growth in sales will remain difficult to achieve as consumer spending remains stagnant in Japan.

In recent years, we have taken certain steps intended to reduce our costs. However, with the possibility of an increase in product material prices, exchange rate swings, a rise in labor costs in Asia, or costs being incurred in response to changes in the business environment, we may not be successful in materially reducing our costs, and any cost reductions that we achieve may not be large enough to compensate for difficulties that we may face in increasing our sales.

(9) It may be difficult for us to attract and retain highly qualified personnel

The growth of our business depends significantly on our ability to attract, train, and retain qualified personnel in areas such as product planning, manufacturing technology, and sales and marketing. Our ability to attract qualified personnel depends in large part on our ability to establish and maintain a positive image in the labor market. We may not be successful in attracting and retaining qualified personnel, which may have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

(10) Our business may be adversely affected by irregular weather

Our business performance and results may be affected by the weather and irregularity of seasons. We typically launch new intimate apparel product campaigns for the spring/summer and fall/winter seasons of each year for our Wacoal and Wing brands and our business success largely depends on the success of these seasonal product campaigns. We also produce and acquire merchandise in advance of the peak selling periods of the seasons during which we intend to sell such merchandise and sometimes before new fashion trends are confirmed by consumer purchases. If a season is unusually warm, cold, short, long, or in any other way irregular, consumers may change their buying habits, and we may not be able to sell our inventory in the way we anticipated at the time of purchase. Changes in seasonal weather patterns and extreme weather events have adversely affected our sales in the past and may affect us in the future.

(11) We may face increasing risks relating to conducting business internationally

We have gradually increased both the amount of goods we produce and the amount of raw materials we procure for the products sold in Japan in lower-cost countries in Asia – a trend we expect to continue. In addition, we are making efforts to expand our product sales in overseas markets, including in the United States, Europe, and China. These initiatives and trends may increasingly subject us to various risks relating to the conduct of our business abroad, including:

- (i) differing consumer tastes and preferences in overseas markets;
- (ii) political, social, and economic instability in countries where we source, manufacture, or sell our products;
- (iii) unexpected tax, legal, or regulatory changes or actions that may adversely affect our group;
- (iv) difficulty in staffing and managing widespread operations;
- (v) changes in exchange rates;
- (vi) differing protection of intellectual property; and
- (vii) public health or similar problems in our important overseas markets or sourcing/production centers.

(12) We may not be successful with acquisitions and other strategic transactions with third parties

We intend to evaluate and pursue opportunities for acquisitions, investments, and other strategic transactions that we believe will help us achieve our business objectives, including extending our product offerings in Japan and in overseas markets and strengthening our capabilities in Internet, catalogue, and other marketing channels.

Any acquisitions or other strategic transactions that we have pursued or may pursue in the future may involve material risks to our company and the value of our shares. Such material risks would include possible impairment charges on our investments in an investee company, in addition to unsuccessful integration of or a lack of cooperation between our businesses with those of our counterparties. If any of these material risks occur, it could have an adverse effect on the results, financial condition and cash flow of our existing operations as well as a business we acquire.

(13) We may not be able to recover the cost of investments we make in pursuing growth opportunities and developing new markets

Our pursuit of growth opportunities and new markets through international expansion, acquisitions, strategic alliances, or otherwise will require significant resources, time, and costs. There is no guarantee that we will generate results that are sufficient to cover the cost of making any such investment, even if we conduct an extensive due diligence investigation and other analyses prior to making the investment to maximize the probability of success and minimize the risks. Failure to recover the cost of investments could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

(14) We may face infringement of our intellectual property rights or claims that we infringe the intellectual property rights of others

We believe that our intellectual property rights, our brands and related trademarks in particular, are important to our ability to create and sustain demand for our products and to the value of our business. We may encounter trademark and related disputes in the future, and imitation of our products or the infringement of our trademarks and proprietary rights by other could materially harm our operations and financial condition. Additionally, other parties have asserted in the past, and may assert in the future, that we have infringed their intellectual property rights. We cannot predict whether any such assertions or related claims will substantially harm our financial conditions or results of operations.

(15) We may be exposed to risks in the occurrence of information system intrusion

Our computer system may be subject to an attack from external sources resulting in website defacement, leaking of material data, or erasing of material data due to a computer virus. If any of these events occur, our sales may decline as a result of deterioration in our corporate image, which could have a material impact on our operating results and financial condition.

(16) If we fail to protect our customers' privacy and data and maintain the confidentiality of our trade secrets we may face proceedings against us, lose customer confidence, or lose our market position

Any failure by us to comply with laws and regulations regarding privacy and the protection of customer information could result in proceedings against us by governmental entities or others, which could potentially have an adverse effect on our business, operating results and financial condition. Complying with varying privacy requirements could cause us not only to incur substantial costs and force us to change our business practices, but also could cause customers to lose confidence in our business and products, which could result in a material adverse effect on our sales and profitability.

Additionally, in order for us to secure and maintain an advantageous position in the market, we need to protect our trade secrets, such as manufacturing technology and product information. If these trade secrets are divulged by any party related to us or infringed by another company, our business or financial condition could be materially affected.

(17) If we fail to maintain adequate internal controls over financial reporting we may not be able to produce reliable financial reports in a timely manner or prevent financial fraud

Beginning with our annual report for fiscal year 2007, we are required to document and test our internal control procedures.

Effective internal controls are necessary for us to produce reliable financial reports and important in helping prevent financial fraud. If we cannot provide reliable financial reports on a timely basis or prevent financial fraud, our business and operating results could be harmed, investors could lose confidence in our reported financial information, and the trading price of our stock could drop significantly.

(18) Our holdings of equity securities expose us to market risks

We hold equity and other securities in publicly traded Japanese companies. A significant drop in the value of these securities or in the Japanese equity markets in general, could have an adverse impact on our financial results in the relevant reporting period.

In addition, if there is a decrease in our pension assets due to adverse conditions in stock or bond markets or other factors, additional funding and accruals may be required, and such funding and accruals may adversely affect our performance and financial condition.

(19) Natural disasters and epidemics could affect our manufacturing abilities, results of operations, or financial condition

Japan is one of the most seismically active countries in the world and regularly experiences typhoons and other natural disasters. In the event of a large earthquake, other natural disaster, or outbreak of an epidemic that affects our employees or our ability to continue using any of our sales or manufacturing facilities, our sales and marketing efforts would be adversely affected and we would face the possibility of work delays or stoppages, any of which could have a negative effect on our business. Any such natural disaster or epidemic could also cause disruptions in the transportation networks that our business relies upon and could interfere with our normal course of production and distribution. Furthermore, any such natural disaster or epidemic would also have a large impact on consumer activity, which would have a significant impact on the sales of our products.

5. [Material Agreements, etc.]

During the fiscal year that ended in March 2015, we have not made any management decisions on or been a party to any material agreements, etc.

6. [Research and Development]

Our research and development activities are mainly conducted by our Human Science Research Center to achieve harmony between the human body and clothing and to support better product making.

Since 1964, we have been conducting research into the female body in order to accurately understand the Japanese woman's physique. In particular, we have developed a silhouette analysis system and introduced a three-dimensional measuring system. We are also working on an even more advanced measurement of sensory comfort. Our research and development activities focus on addressing the proportional, physiological, and mental aspects of garment design. One of our most important research results was the enrichment of our research on sensory comfort through our participation in a project led by the Ministry of Trade and Industry (presently the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry) from 1995 to 1998. Based on this research, we have been focusing on developing new products that are not only comfortable for the wearer, but also have a positive physiological effect based on the basic study from three factors, which are pressure, heat, and touch. In 2005, we developed and created a new market for our breakthrough Style Science series products, which support a healthy and beautiful body-making by changing the concept from daily walking to exercise walking. In 2010, we conducted an analysis and announced principles on the physiological changes associated with aging period from 20s to 50s. We also strengthened development of new products coping with aging and we have been working on developing new functional products based on the lifestyle habit of people with small physical changes associated with aging.

Our Human Science Research Center is promoting research and development, which is based on a survey analysis of body shapes and needs of customers of the generation for which the products are introduced and senior generation.

In terms of product development, during the fiscal year that ended in March 2015, we enhanced the development of new products which focus on "comfort" aspect and of new products which can attract young adults, an age group that do not wear girdles.

As a result of the above, we recorded 869 million yen for our research and development during the fiscal year ended March 2015.

In order to promote "the realization of supporting industry for women with unbounded living beauty," we will make efforts to enrich our research and development activities that can contribute to the improvements of customer satisfaction and corporate value based on the key concept of beauty, comfort, and health. We will also work toward strengthening product appeal and developing new products or services that can gain support from and satisfy our customers.

7. [Analyses of Financial Position, Operating Results, and Cash Flows]

Forward-looking statements in this report are made on information available as of the filing date of this report (June 26, 2015).

(1) Overview

We are a leading designer, manufacturer, and marketer in Japan of women's intimate apparel, with the largest share of the Japanese market for foundation garments and lingerie. Foundation garments (primarily brassieres and girdles) and lingerie (primarily slips, bra-slips, and women's briefs) accounted for 74.4% of our consolidated net sales for fiscal year 2015. We also design, manufacture, and sell nightwear, children's underwear, outerwear, sportswear, hosiery and other apparel and textile products, and other several services.

Net Sales

We principally generate revenues from sales of innerwear (consisting of foundation garments and lingerie, nightwear, and children's underwear), outerwear and sportswear, hosiery, textile products, and other products.

The following table sets forth information with respect to our net sales by category of products for fiscal year 2015.

Net Sales to External Customers (and Percentage) by Product Category

Type of product	Millions of yen	Distribution ratio
Foundation and lingerie	142,681	74.4%
Nightwear	9,514	5.0
Children's underwear	1,373	0.7
Total innerwear	153,568	80.1
Outerwear and sportswear	16,227	8.4
Hosiery	2,437	1.3
Other textile products and related products	7,616	4.0
Other	11,917	6.2
TOTAL	191,765	100.0%

For fiscal year 2015, approximately 80% of the net sales of Wacoal Corp. (the net sales of which account for approximately 59% of our consolidated net sales) were apparel sales made on a wholesale basis to department stores, general merchandisers, and other general retailers and approximately 18% were apparel sales made through our own specialty retail stores, catalogue sales, and the Internet. Sales from our other businesses (which include cultural products and other services) constituted the remaining, approximately 2%, of Wacoal Corp.'s net sales for fiscal year 2015.

Over the past five fiscal years, fluctuations in our sales have typically reflected changes in unit volume, as average unit prices have generally remained stable during this period.

Cost of Sales

Our cost of sales arises principally from material and manufacturing costs related to the production of our apparel products.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Our selling, general and administrative expenses principally consist of employee compensation and benefit expenses and promotional expenses, such as advertising costs and renovation costs. Other selling, general and administrative expenses include shipping and handling costs, payment fees (including outsourcing payments), and rental payments for our specialty retail stores.

Key Industry Trends

We believe that the following have been key trends in our industry during the last two fiscal years:

(i) In the domestic innerwear market, sales began to decrease due to a decline in customer confidence as a result of growing consumer awareness of the need to hold off from spending after the consumption tax increase, in addition to the influence of rising prices associated with the weakening yen and other increasing burden, while the female population is declining. Although the overall purchase price range has decreased, the high-price market was revitalized by wealthy segments of the population encouraged by high stock prices.

- (ii) Purchases are increasing in sales channel at locations other than traditional selling spaces such as department stores, general merchandisers and specialty stores for underwear. Consumer purchasing behavior has changed and diversified as seen in growing sales from Internet sales, and directly-managed stores and casual apparel shops resulting from shop openings at retail shopping malls.
- (iii) The apparel market is becoming competitive due to major outerwear manufacturers entering the market, in addition to specialty apparel companies and non-store retailing. Retailers and specialty store retailers of private label apparel are making efforts to improve the frequency of use by increasing customer contacts through direct retail sales, website sales, and other Internet sales. Companies are also strengthening the development of "private brand" merchandise at general merchandisers. Manufacturing companies are making efforts to strengthen direct sales and OEM and to develop new sales channels.
- (iv) These manufacturers and other competitors are producing lower priced women's innerwear garments by sourcing fabric and producing garments in lower cost countries in Asia, but due to the weakening yen and a rise in labor costs, tend to develop products at a higher price with value-added features.
- (v) Companies are conducting new marketing strategies to achieve more diversified sales channels and exposure to new consumer groups.

We have taken steps for two fiscal years to address these key industry trends to build on the core strengths of our market position and brand awareness among Japanese consumers. We have taken steps to reduce our cost structure, such as producing more products in lower-cost countries in Asia, consolidating and streamlining our product distribution centers and reviewing indirect expenses. We are also seeking to expand sales in overseas markets—in particular China, the United States, and Europe, as well as in the ASEAN region, where we have been trying to increase sales through our directly managed stores and website. Additionally, we intend to extend our innerwear product offerings into the midprice range in our product mix to help us reach a broader consumer base. We will continue to implement these steps and evaluate other strategies to address challenges and opportunities in the industry going forward.

(2) Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires our management to make estimates and assumptions. We believe that the followings are some of the more critical judgment areas in applying our accounting policies in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements

(i) Revenue Recognition

We recognize revenue on sales to retailers, mail-order catalogue sales, and Internet sales when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred resulting in transfer of title and risk of loss, the sales price is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. As for consignment sales, we recognize revenue when the products are sold to the ultimate customer. We recognize revenue on direct retail sales at our directly managed retail stores at the point of sale to the customer.

(ii) Allowance for Doubtful Receivables and Returns

We are required to assess the collectibility of notes and accounts receivable. A considerable amount of judgment is required in assessing the ultimate realization of these notes and receivables, including the current creditworthiness of each applicable customer, taking into account business conditions, turnover of receivables, and financial positions for significant customers. In the event that a customer's financial condition worsens, the allowance for doubtful receivables may increase and may adversely affect our financial condition and performance.

We allow our customers to return their unsold products when the customers meet certain criteria established by us as outlined in our applicable trade terms. We establish the allowance for estimated returns for each operating department based on historical experience with product returns, sales movements, and the size of inventory on the retail level and on the situation of the retail industry overall. We review and revise the allowance every quarter, in consideration of actual returns, planned product discontinuances, and promotional sales. We record the allowance for estimated returns as a reduction to sales.

(iii) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis for raw materials and on an average cost basis for work in process and finished products. Market value, or net realizable value, is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make a sale. A periodic review of inventory is performed in order to determine if inventory is properly stated at the lower of cost or market. Inventories are written down to the estimated net realizable values, if appropriate. Factors, such as expected average selling price, expected average cost to make a sale, markdown rate, and class or type of inventories, are analyzed to determine estimated net realizable value. We also consider potential disposal of inventories. Criteria utilized to quantify the factors we consider include historical results, judgments regarding future consumer demand, and other factors. We believe that the amount written down is appropriate. However, if market conditions and demand are less favorable than our projections, the amount we write down may increase and may adversely affect our financial condition or operating results.

(iv) Deferred Tax Assets

We currently have significant deferred tax assets, which are subject to periodic recoverability assessments. Realization of our deferred tax assets is principally dependent upon the realization of projected future taxable income. In estimating our future taxable income, we consider past operating results, the feasibility of ongoing tax planning strategies, and other factors. Our judgments regarding future profitability may change due to future market conditions and other factors. These changes, if any, may require recognition of a significant valuation allowance for these deferred tax asset balances. In the event we determine that certain deferred tax assets may not be recoverable, such amounts will be reserved for and may adversely affect net income. We believe our deferred tax assets after adjustments for valuation allowance are recoverable. If we record lower-than-expected earnings and our deferred tax assets become unrecoverable, however, a valuation allowance must be recorded against the amount that is not likely to be recovered, and this may have a negative impact on our profit and loss.

(v) Impairment Charges on Investments

Impairment charges on investments are charged to earnings when a decline in fair value below the cost is other than temporary. We periodically determine whether a decline in the fair value of marketable securities and investments is deemed to be other-than-temporary decline, based on criteria that include the duration and severity of market decline, the extent to which cost exceeds market value, issuer financial position and business outlook, and our intent and ability to retain the impaired marketable securities and investments for sufficient period of time for anticipated recovery in fair value.

We believe that the criteria for evaluating impairment are reasonable. However, changes in the market or circumstances of each individual investment due to unforeseen changes in economic and business assumptions could affect the valuations of the investments.

For fiscal year 2015, we held securities with respect to which we recognized impairment charges, as well as securities with respect to which we did not recognize any impairment charges even though those securities had been in an unrealized loss position. Based on our assessment of the period of the decline in the fair values and our assessment of the relevant companies' earnings outlook, we concluded that the decline in fair value for the securities not subject to impairment charges was only temporary and thus impairment charges did not need to be recognized for these particular securities.

At the end of fiscal year 2015, we did not hold any security that had an unrealized material holding loss.

(vi) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The carrying values of long-lived assets, which have estimable useful lives of fixed numbers of years, are evaluated for impairment whenever there is an event or change in circumstances that indicates that such assets have been impaired or that the carrying amounts of such assets might not be recoverable. When we determined impairment, we evaluate the carrying amount of the assets based on their fair value.

In fiscal year 2015, we concluded that there was no material impairment with respect to the carrying value of our long-lived assets.

(vii) Valuation of Indefinite-Lived Intangible Assets and Goodwill

We are required to perform an annual impairment test of our intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and goodwill. We also assess the impairment of such intangible assets and goodwill whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Some of the factors we consider important that could trigger an impairment review include the following:

significant underperformance relative to historical or projected future operating results;

significant changes in the manner of our use of the acquired assets or the strategy for our overall business;

significant negative industry or economic trends; and significant changes in risk-adjusted discount rates.

When we determine that the carrying amount of indefinite-lived intangible assets and goodwill may not be recoverable based upon the existence of one or more of the above indicators of impairment, we evaluate the carrying amount of the assets based on their fair value. If the fair value is less than the carrying amount of the assets, we record an impairment loss based on the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of the assets.

If we make an initial determination that the carrying amount of indefinite-lived intangible assets and goodwill may not be recoverable, we engage an independent appraiser to assist us in our determination of the fair values of our reporting units. In our determination of the fair value of goodwill, we utilize the net present value method and incorporate relevant unobservable inputs.

Significant assumptions used in this analysis include future cash flows and the risk-adjusted discount rate. Future cash flows are based on the management's cash flow projections for the future five years, after which future cash flows are estimated using the perpetuity growth rate of zero. The management's cash flow projections are developed using estimates for expected future revenue growth rates, profit margins, and working capital levels of the reporting units. The risk-adjusted discount rate is determined by the Capital Asset Pricing Model ("CAPM") and we mainly utilize a weighted-average cost of capital ("WACC") of 4.3%.

As a result of the evaluation performed for fiscal year 2015, we recorded 4,845 million yen of impairment charges on goodwill.

In our determination of the fair value of trademark, we utilize the relief-from-royalty method and incorporate relevant unobservable inputs. Significant assumptions used in this analysis include future cash flows, the risk-adjusted discount rate, and the rate of royalty. Future cash flows are based on the management's cash flow projections for the future five years, after which future cash flows are estimated using the perpetuity growth rate of zero. The management's cash flow projections are developed using estimates for expected future revenue growth rates, profit margins, and working capital levels of the reporting units. We mainly used a risk-adjusted discount rate of 7.3% based on a WACC of 4.3% and an inherent risk spread of trademark of 3%. The rate of royalty used for valuation was 3%, which was based on the royalty ratio used in the actual transaction with a third party.

As a result of the evaluation performed for fiscal year 2015, we recorded 1,176 million yen of impairment in the carrying value of the trademark.

The carrying values of other intangible assets that have estimable useful lives are evaluated for impairment based on future cash flows, whenever there is an event or change in circumstances that indicates that the carrying amounts of such assets might not be recoverable. When determining the impairment of other intangible assets, we evaluate the carrying amount of the assets based on their fair value. In our determination of the fair value of customer relationships, we utilize the excess earnings method and incorporate relevant unobservable inputs.

On fiscal year 2015, there was no evaluation on impairment since customer relationships were fully amortized during the year ended March 31, 2015.

(viii) Employee Retirement Benefits

We provide a number of retirement benefit plans to a substantial portion of our employees. Our wholly owned subsidiary, Wacoal Corp., has a contributory retirement plan. The amount of the projected retirement benefit obligation and pension costs are dependent on management's assumptions used by actuaries in calculating such amount. The key assumptions include discount rates, expected long-term rate of return on plan assets, retirement rates, mortality expectations, and other factors. Our management believes that these actuarial assumptions and methods are appropriate in light of our circumstances. However, due to a change in an actuarial assumption, the amount of the projected retirement benefit plan liabilities and costs may be adversely affected.

Our approach to establishing the discount rate is based upon long-term Japanese government bond rates and corporate bond indices. The discount rate assumption is based upon the effective yields as of March 31, 2015 on the Japanese government bonds whose maturity dates approximate the timing of the expected future benefit payments. On March 31, 2015, the discount rate used for the contributory retirement plan was 1.0%.

We determine the expected long-term rate of return on plan asset assumptions by evaluating both historical returns, as well as estimates of future returns. Its expected return on assets was based on expected equity and debt securities returns weighted by the percentage of each of the major asset classes. Its estimate of the long-term rate of return on assets for the contributory retirement plan is 2.5% for fiscal years 2014 and 2015. The estimated long-term rate of return is based on an asset allocation of equity securities of 26.0%, debt securities of 54.0%, life insurance company general accounts of 18.0%, and short-term financing of 2.0%.

These assumptions have a significant effect on the amount of the obligation and periodic benefit cost reported. A change of 0.5% in the discount rate and the expected long-term rate of return on plan assets would have the following effects:

	Effect on periodic benefit costs	Effect on benefit obligation
Discount rate: 0.5% decrease	an increase of 313 million yen	an increase of 1,895 million yen
Discount rate: 0.5% increase	a decrease of 181 million yen	a decrease of 1,663 million yen
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets: 0.5% decrease	an increase of 165 million yen	-
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets: 0.5% increase	a decrease of 157 million yen	-

The other retirement plans provide for either lump-sum termination benefits or periodic payments under certain conditions. Benefits are usually paid as a lump sum at the earlier of the employee's termination or the mandatory retirement age.

(3) New Accounting Pronouncements

Revenue Recognition - In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standard Board (the "FASB") issued a new accounting standard related to revenue recognition. This guidance is based on the principle that revenue is recognized to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This standard provides comprehensive guidance, and requires the disclosure of information to enable users of financial statements to understand the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016 and interim periods within that annual period. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adoption on the Company's consolidated financial position, result of operations, or cash flows.

Extraordinary and Unusual Items - In January 2015, the FASB issued a new accounting standard related to extraordinary and unusual items. This guidance eliminates from U.S. GAAP the concept of extraordinary items and the requirements to 1) segregate an extraordinary item from the results of ordinary operations, 2) present the item separately on the income statement, net of tax, after income from continuing operations and 3) disclose income taxes and earnings-per-share data applicable to the extraordinary item. This guidance is effective for fiscal years and interim periods within that annual period, beginning after December 15, 2015. It is not expected to have an impact on the Companies' consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows, since it relates only to disclosure requirements.

Fair Value Measurement - In May 2015, the FASB issued a new standard which amends fair value measurement. This standard removes the requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy all investments for which fair value is measured using the net asset value per share practical expedient. The amendments also remove the requirement to make certain disclosures for all investments that are eligible to be measured at fair value using the net asset value per share practical expedient. Rather, those disclosures are limited to investments for which the entity has elected to measure the fair value using that practical expedient. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2015, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have an impact on the Companies' consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows, since it relates only to disclosure requirements.

(4) Report on Business Results

(i) Sales

Please see "II. Business Overview – 1. Summary of Business Results – (1) Summary of Operations."

(ii) Cost of Sales

Our cost of sales decreased 0.3% from 91,008 million yen for fiscal year 2014 to 90,722 million yen for fiscal year 2015. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales increased 0.3% from 47.0% for fiscal year 2014 to 47.3% for fiscal year 2015 due to an increase in the ratio of sales achieved by our domestic subsidiaries with a high cost rate.

(iii) Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Our selling, general and administrative expenses decreased 1.1% from 88,913 million yen for fiscal year 2014 to 87,940 million yen for fiscal year 2015. This decrease was mainly due to a decrease in pension costs at Wacoal Corp., in addition to our efforts in cost reduction, such as advertising costs.

(iv) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

At the end of fiscal year 2015, we examined potential impairment charges on the trademarks and goodwill, all of which are recorded as other intangible fixed assets of Peach John, pursuant to its business plan, and accordingly, recorded 1,176 million yen and 4,845 million yen of impairment charges, respectively. There were no impairment charges for fiscal year 2014.

(v) Operating Margin

Our operating margin decreased 3.5% from 7.2% for fiscal year 2014 to 3.7% for fiscal year 2015. This decrease was mainly due to the impairment charges recorded for the Peach John business in addition to decreased sales from existing businesses, despite our cost reduction efforts by the entire group.

(vi) Other Income/Expenses

We recorded 4,260 million yen as other income, an increase of 3,087 million yen, as compared to 1,173 million yen of other income recorded for fiscal year 2014. This increase was mainly due to the gain on sale and exchange of marketable securities and investments increase of 1,501 million yen from fiscal year 2014 and the gain of 1,405 million yen from the sale of paintings. (vii) Net Income Attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp.

Net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. for fiscal year 2015 was 8,444 million yen, a decrease of 1,662 million yen as compared to fiscal year 2014 as a result of a deterioration in our operating margin, despite an increase in other income and a decrease in tax expense associated with subsidiary restructuring.

(5) Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our current policy is to fund our cash needs from cash flows from operations, which allows us to secure working capital, make capital investments, and pay dividends without relying on substantial borrowings or other financing from outside of our group companies. As of March 31, 2015, we had credit facilities at financial institutions totaling 39,569 million yen, and the used credit lines for financing amounted to 14,079 million yen. Of this credit, 6,500 million yen is used by Wacoal Holdings Corp., 3,957 million yen is used by Wacoal Europe Ltd., 3,284 million yen is used by Wacoal Service Co., Ltd., and 338 million yen is used by Nanasai.

In general, most of our credit facilities have automatically renewed terms, and we are not aware of any issues that could cause these facilities to become unavailable. Even if any of our subsidiaries loses access to funds from our credit facilities, we believe that it is possible for other companies in our group to provide any necessary funds. Our borrowing requirements are not affected by seasonality.

We are not aware of any restrictions on the transfers of funds from a subsidiary to a parent company in the form of a cash dividend, loan, or cash advance. We believe our working capital is adequate for our present requirements and for our business operations in the short to long term.

(i) Capital Investments

Please see "III. Property, Plants, and Equipment – 1. Summary of Capital Investment, etc."

(ii) Cash Flows

Please see "II. Business Overview - 1. Summary of Business Results - (2) Cash Flow Status."

III. [Property, Plants, and Equipment]

1. [Summary of Capital Investment, etc.]

The amount of capital investment for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, was 4,478 million yen. A majority of our capital investment was used in our new construction project of a business-use building, the information system investment for our domestic subsidiaries and maintenance and repair work implemented for the real properties held by the Company.

The amounts of capital investment made in Wacoal Business (Domestic), Wacoal Business (Overseas), Peach John Business, and Other were 3,338 million yen, 742 million yen, 300 million yen, and 98 million yen, respectively.

Matters related to the grant of stock acquisition rights accompanying reorganization acts	(Note 4)	(Note 4)

- (Note) 1 The number of shares represented by one (1) stock acquisition right is 1,000 shares.
 - In the event that the Company conducts a stock split (including the free allocation of shares of common stock of the Company; hereinafter the same) or a reverse split of its common stock, the number of shares represented by stock acquisition rights (the "Conversion Ratio") will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

Adjusted Conversion = Conversion Ratio prior to Ratio of stock split adjustment X Ratio of stock split

This adjustment will apply from the day following the record date in the case of a stock split and from the day on which the reverse stock split becomes effective in the case of a reverse stock split. However, in the event that the Company conducts a stock split that is conditioned on approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company of an increase in stockholders' equity or additional paid-in capital by decreasing the amount of surplus, and provided that the record date for such stock split is set prior to the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, from the day following the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, the adjustment will apply retroactively from the day following the record date. In addition to the above, the Conversion Ratio shall be reasonably adjusted as may be required in unavoidable circumstances.

- Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the event that they lose their status as Director (including officers of a company that has adopted the committee system), Audit & Supervisory Board Member, or executive officer of the Company and Wacoal Corp. (the "Date of Loss of Status"); provided, however, that in such case, such Option holder may only exercise his or her stock acquisition rights until the earlier of (i) the expiration date of the exercise period as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the five-year anniversary of the day after the Date of Loss of Status (the "Exercise Start Date").
 - (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the exercise period set forth in the table above, the Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the following cases (for item (ii), excluding the case where the stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company are granted to the Option holders pursuant to Note 4 below) only during the respective periods designated below:
 - (i) if the Exercise Start Date of the Option holder has not occurred by September 1, 2027 From September 2, 2027 until September 1, 2028.
 - (ii) if the general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves a merger agreement pursuant to which the Company is to be dissolved or a stock swap agreement or share transfer plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary (or, in the event a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is not required, if a resolution of the board or determination by the chief executive officer of the Company is passed):

 For 15 days from the day after the date of said approval.
 - (3) If an Option holder waives his or her stock acquisition rights, such Option holder may not exercise the said stock acquisition rights.
- In the event that the Company conducts a merger (limited to a merger that would result in the dissolution of the Company), absorption-type demerger, incorporation-type demerger, stock swap or share transfer (collectively, "Organizational Restructuring"), stock acquisition rights of the joint stock companies (kabushiki kaisha) listed in Article 236, Paragraph 1, Item 8, (a) through (e) of the Companies Act (the "Surviving Company") shall be granted to each holder of stock acquisition rights remaining immediately prior to the Organizational Restructuring takes effect (the "Residual Stock Acquisition Rights") (i.e., for an absorption-type demerger, the date on which the demerger takes effect; for an incorporation-type demerger, the date on which the wholly owning parent company is incorporated by share transfer) in accordance with the following terms and conditions. In such case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be canceled, and the Surviving Company shall issue new stock acquisition rights; provided, however, that this shall be limited to the case where the grant of stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company pursuant to the following conditions is stipulated in the absorption-type demerger agreement, incorporation-type demerger agreement, merger and spin-off agreement, new spin-off plan, stock swap agreement, or share transfer plan:
 - (1) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights of the Surviving Company to be Granted: The number of stock acquisition rights to be granted shall be equal to the number of Residual Stock Acquisition Rights.
 - (2) Class of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: Common stock of the Surviving Company.
 - (3) Number of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights:

To be determined pursuant to Note 2 above after taking into consideration the terms and conditions of the Organizational Restructuring.

(4) Amount Capitalized upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

The amount capitalized upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted shall be the amount paid after restructuring as prescribed below multiplied by the number of shares of the Surviving Company to be issued upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights as determined in accordance with (3) above. The amount paid after restructuring shall be one yen per share of the Surviving Company, which may be granted upon exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted.

- (5) Exercise Period for Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - From the later of (i) the starting date of the exercise period for stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the effective date of Organizational Restructuring, and lasting until the expiration date for the exercise of stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above.
- (6) Matters concerning Increases in Capital Stock and Additional Paid-in Capital in case of Issuance of Shares due to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - (i) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, shareholders' equity shall be increased by half the limit for increases in common stock that are calculated in accordance with Article 40-1 of the Japanese Company Accounting Regulations. Any amount less than one yen shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.
 - (ii) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, additional paid-in capital shall be increased by the amount remaining after deducting the increase in the limit for increase in common stock stipulated in (i) above.
- (7) Limitation on Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by Transfer:
 The acquisition of stock acquisition rights by transfer shall be subject to approval by resolution of the board.
- (8) Provisions for the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - In the event that a general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves any of the following (or, when shareholder approval is not necessary, in the event that the board or the representative executive officer approves of any of the following), the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights without compensation on a date separately specified by the board:
 - (i) a proposed merger agreement under which the Company is to be dissolved;
 - (ii) a proposed corporate division agreement or plan under which the Company would be split;
 - (iii) a proposed share transfer agreement or plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary;
 - (iv) a proposed amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company, with respect to all of its issued shares, shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of such shares by transfer;
 - (v) a proposed approval for an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of the shares to be issued upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights by transfer or that the Company shall obtain all of the shares of said class by a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders.
- (9) Other Conditions relating to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

To be determined pursuant to Note 3 above.

(ii) Second Stock Acquisition Rights (resolved at the Board of Directors' meeting held on July 30, 2008)

- (Note) 1 The number of shares represented by one (1) stock acquisition right is 1,000 shares.
 - 2 In the event that the Company conducts a stock split (including the free allocation of shares of common stock of the Company; hereinafter the same) or a reverse split of its common stock, the Conversion Ratio will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

Adjusted Conversion _ Co		Conversion Ratio prior to	v	Ratio of stock split
Ratio	_	adjustment	Λ	or reverse stock split

This adjustment will apply from the day following the record date in the case of a stock split and from the day on which the reverse stock split becomes effective in the case of a reverse stock split. However, in the event that the Company conducts a stock split that is conditioned on approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company of an increase in stockholders' equity or additional paid-in capital by decreasing the amount of surplus, and provided that the record date for such stock split is set prior to the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, from the day following the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, the adjustment will apply retroactively from the day following the record date. In addition to the above, the Conversion Ratio shall be reasonably adjusted as may be required in unavoidable circumstances.

- Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights on the Date of Loss of Status; provided, however, that in such case, such Option holder may only exercise his or her stock acquisition rights until the earlier of (i) the expiration date of the exercise period as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the five-year anniversary of the Exercise Start Date.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the exercise period set forth in the table above, the Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the following cases (for item (ii), excluding the case where the stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company are granted to the Option holders pursuant to Note 4 below) only during the respective periods designated below:

- (i) if the Exercise Start Date of the Option holder has not occurred by September 1, 2027 From September 2, 2027 until September 1, 2028.
- (ii) if the general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves a merger agreement pursuant to which the Company is to be dissolved or a stock swap agreement or share transfer plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary (or, in the event a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is not required, if a resolution of the board or determination by the chief executive officer of the Company is passed): For 15 days from the day after the date of said approval.
- (3) If an Option holder waives his or her stock acquisition rights, such Option holder may not exercise the said stock acquisition rights.
- In the event that the Company conducts Organizational Restructuring, stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company shall be granted to each holder of the Residual Stock Acquisition Rights in accordance with the following terms and conditions. In such case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be canceled, and the Surviving Company shall issue new stock acquisition rights; provided, however, that this shall be limited to the case where the grant of stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company pursuant to the following conditions is stipulated in the absorption-type demerger agreement, incorporation-type demerger agreement, merger and spin-off agreement, new spin-off plan, stock swap agreement, or share transfer plan:
 - (1) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights of the Surviving Company to be Granted: The number of stock acquisition rights to be granted shall be equal to the number of Residual Stock Acquisition Rights.
 - (2) Class of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: Common stock of the Surviving Company.
 - (3) Number of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 2 above after taking into consideration the terms and conditions of the Organizational Restructuring.
 - (4) Amount Capitalized upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - The amount capitalized upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted shall be the amount paid after restructuring as prescribed below multiplied by the number of shares of the Surviving Company to be issued upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights as determined in accordance with (3) above. The amount paid after restructuring shall be one yen per share of the Surviving Company, which may be granted upon exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted.
 - (5) Exercise Period for Stock Acquisition Rights: From the later of (i) the starting date of the exercise period for stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the effective date of Organizational Restructuring, and lasting until the expiration date for the exercise of stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above.

 - (7) Limitation on Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by Transfer: The acquisition of stock acquisition rights by transfer shall be subject to approval by resolution of the board.
 - (8) Provisions for the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights: In the event that a general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves any of the following (or, when shareholder approval is not necessary, in the event that the board or the representative executive officer approves of any of the following), the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights without compensation on a date separately specified by the board:
 - (i) a proposed merger agreement under which the Company is to be dissolved;
 - (ii) a proposed corporate division agreement or plan under which the Company would be split;
 - (iii) a proposed share transfer agreement or plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary;

- (iv) a proposed amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company, with respect to all of its issued shares, shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of such shares by transfer;
- (v) a proposed approval for an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of the shares to be issued upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights by transfer or that the Company shall obtain all of the shares of said class by a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders.
- (9) Other Conditions relating to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 3 above:

(iii) Third Stock Acquisition Rights (resolved at the Board of Directors' meeting held on July 30, 2009)

- (Note) 1 The number of shares represented by one (1) stock acquisition right is 1,000 shares.
 - 2 In the event that the Company conducts a stock split (including the free allocation of shares of common stock of the Company; hereinafter the same) or a reverse split of its common stock, the Conversion Ratio will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

Adjusted Conversion	_	Conversion Ratio prior to	\mathbf{v}	Ratio of stock split
Ratio	_	adjustment	Λ	or reverse stock split

This adjustment will apply from the day following the record date in the case of a stock split and from the day on which the reverse stock split becomes effective in the case of a reverse stock split. However, in the event that the Company conducts a stock split that is conditioned on approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company of an increase in stockholders' equity or additional paid-in capital by decreasing the amount of surplus, and provided that the record date for such stock split is set prior to the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, from the day following the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, the adjustment will apply retroactively from the day following the record date. In addition to the above, the Conversion Ratio shall be reasonably adjusted as may be required in unavoidable circumstances.

Any fractional shares that result from the above adjustment will be rounded down to the nearest whole share. Furthermore, in case of any adjustment of the Conversion Ratio, the Company shall make any necessary notification or announcement to Option holders no later than the day immediately preceding the day on which the adjusted Conversion Ratio becomes effective. However, if the Company is unable to provide such notification or announcement by such date, the Company shall provide prompt notification or announcement thereafter.

- 3 (1) Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights on the Date of Loss of Status; provided, however, that in such case, such Option holder may only exercise his or her stock acquisition rights until the earlier of (i) the expiration date of the exercise period as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the five-year anniversary of the Exercise Start Date.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the exercise period set forth in the table above, the Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the following cases (for item (ii), excluding the case where the stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company are granted to the Option holders pursuant to Note 4 below) only during the respective periods designated below:
 - (i) if the Exercise Start Date of the Option holder has not occurred by September 1, 2028 From September 2, 2028 until September 1, 2029.
 - (ii) if the general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves a merger agreement pursuant to which the Company is to be dissolved or a stock swap agreement or share transfer plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary (or, in the event a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is not required, if a resolution of the board or determination by the chief executive officer of the Company is passed): For 15 days from the day after the date of said approval.
 - (3) If an Option holder waives his or her stock acquisition rights, such Option holder may not exercise the said stock acquisition rights.
- In the event that the Company conducts an Organizational Restructuring, stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company shall be granted to each holder of the Residual Stock Acquisition Rights in accordance with the following terms and conditions. In such case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be canceled, and the Surviving Company shall issue new stock acquisition rights; provided, however, that this shall be limited to the case where the grant of stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company pursuant to the following conditions is stipulated in the absorption-type demerger agreement, incorporation-type demerger agreement, merger and spin-off agreement, new spin-off plan, stock swap agreement, or share transfer plan:
 - (1) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights of the Surviving Company to be Granted: The number of stock acquisition rights to be granted shall be equal to the number of Residual Stock Acquisition Rights.
 - (2) Class of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: Common stock of the Surviving Company.
 - (3) Number of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 2 above after taking into consideration the terms and conditions of the Organizational Restructuring.
 - (4) Amount Capitalized upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

 The amount capitalized upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted shall be the amount paid after restructuring as prescribed below multiplied by the number of shares of the Surviving Company to be issued upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights as determined in accordance with (3) above. The amount paid after restructuring shall be one yen per share of the Surviving Company, which may be granted upon exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted.
 - (5) Exercise Period for Stock Acquisition Rights: From the later of (i) the starting date of the exercise period for stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the effective date of Organizational Restructuring, and lasting until the expiration date for the exercise of stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above.
 - (6) Matters concerning Increases in Capital Stock and Additional Paid-in Capital in case of Issuance of Shares due to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - (i) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, shareholders' equity shall be increased by half the limit for increases in common stock, which are calculated in accordance with Article 17-1 of the Japanese Company Accounting Regulations. Any amount less than one yen shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.
 - (ii) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, additional paid-in capital shall be increased by the amount remaining after deducting the increase in the limit for increase in common stock stipulated in (i) above.
 - (7) Limitation on Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by Transfer: The acquisition of stock acquisition rights by transfer shall be subject to approval by resolution of the board.

- (8) Provisions for the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights:

 In the event that a general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves any of the following (or, when shareholder approval is not necessary, in the event that the board or the representative executive officer approves of any of the following), the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights without compensation on a date separately specified by the board:
 - (i) a proposed merger agreement under which the Company is to be dissolved;
 - (ii) a proposed corporate division agreement or plan under which the Company would be split;
 - (iii) a proposed share transfer agreement or plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary;
 - (iv) a proposed amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company, with respect to all of its issued shares, shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of such shares by transfer; or
 - (v) a proposed approval for an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of the shares to be issued upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights by transfer or that the Company shall obtain all of the shares of said class by a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders.
- (9) Other Conditions relating to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 3 above.

(iv) Fourth Stock Acquisition Rights (resolved at the Board of Directors' meeting held on July 30, 2009)

Matters related to the grant of stock acquisition rights accompanying reorganization acts	(Note 4)	(Note 4)

- (Note) 1 The number of shares represented by one stock acquisition right is 1,000 shares.
 - 2 In the event that the Company conducts a stock split (including the free allocation of shares of common stock of the Company; hereinafter the same) or a reverse split of its common stock, the Conversion Ratio will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

Adjusted Conversion = Conversion Ratio prior to Ratio of stock split adjustment X Ratio of stock split

This adjustment will apply from the day following the record date in the case of a stock split and from the day on which the reverse stock split becomes effective in the case of a reverse stock split. However, in the event that the Company conducts a stock split that is conditioned on approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company of an increase in stockholders' equity or additional paid-in capital by decreasing the amount of surplus, and provided that the record date for such stock split is set prior to the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, from the day following the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, the adjustment will apply retroactively from the day following the record date. In addition to the above, the Conversion Ratio shall be reasonably adjusted as may be required in unavoidable circumstances.

- 3 (1) Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights on the Date of Loss of Status; provided, however, that in such case, such Option holder may only exercise his or her stock acquisition rights until the earlier of (i) the expiration date of the exercise period as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the five-year anniversary of the "Exercise Start Date.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the exercise period set forth in the table above, the Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the following cases (for item (ii), excluding the case where the stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company are granted to the Option holders pursuant to Note 4 below) only during the respective periods designated below:
 - (i) if the Exercise Start Date of the Option holder has not occurred by September 1, 2028 From September 2, 2028 until September 1, 2029.
 - (ii) if the general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves a merger agreement pursuant to which the Company is to be dissolved or a stock swap agreement or share transfer plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary (or, in the event a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is not required, if a resolution of the board or determination by the chief executive officer of the Company is passed): For 15 days from the day after the date of said approval.
 - (3) If an Option holder waives his or her stock acquisition rights, such Option holder may not exercise the said stock acquisition rights.
- In the event that the Company conducts an Organizational Restructuring, stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company shall be granted to each holder of the Residual Stock Acquisition Rights in accordance with the following terms and conditions. In such case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be canceled, and the Surviving Company shall issue new stock acquisition rights; provided, however, that this shall be limited to the case where the grant of stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company pursuant to the following conditions is stipulated in the absorption-type demerger agreement, incorporation-type demerger agreement, merger and spin-off agreement, new spin-off plan, stock swap agreement, or share transfer plan:
 - (1) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights of the Surviving Company to be Granted: The number of stock acquisition rights to be granted shall be equal to the number of Residual Stock Acquisition Rights.
 - (2) Class of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: Common stock of the Surviving Company.
 - (3) Number of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 2 above after taking into consideration the terms and conditions of the Organizational Restructuring.
 - (4) Amount Capitalized upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

 The amount capitalized upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted shall be the amount paid after restructuring as prescribed below multiplied by the number of shares of the Surviving Company to be issued upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights as determined in accordance with (3) above. The amount paid after restructuring shall be one yen per share of the Surviving Company, which may be granted upon exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted.
 - (5) Exercise Period for Stock Acquisition Rights:

 From the later of (i) the starting date of the exercise period for stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the effective date of Organizational Restructuring, and lasting until the expiration date for the exercise of stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above.

- (6) Matters concerning Increases in Capital Stock and Additional Paid-in Capital in case of Issuance of Shares due to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

In the event that the Company conducts a stock split (including the free allocation of shares of common stock of the Company; hereinafter the same) or a reverse split of its common stock, the Conversion Ratio will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

Adjusted Conversion	sion _	Conversion Ratio prior to	\mathbf{v}	Ratio of stock split
Ratio	_	adiustment	Λ	or reverse stock spli

This adjustment will apply from the day following the record date in the case of a stock split and from the day on which the reverse stock split becomes effective in the case of a reverse stock split. However, in the event that the Company conducts a stock split that is conditioned on approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company of an increase in stockholders' equity or additional paid-in capital by decreasing the amount of surplus, and provided that the record date for such stock split is set prior to the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, from the day following the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, the adjustment will apply retroactively from the day following the record date. In addition to the above, the Conversion Ratio shall be reasonably adjusted as may be required in unavoidable circumstances.

Any fractional shares that result from the above adjustment will be rounded down to the nearest whole share.

Furthermore, in case of any adjustment of the Conversion Ratio, the Company shall make any necessary notification or announcement to Option holders no later than the day immediately preceding the day on which the adjusted Conversion Ratio becomes effective. However, if the Company is unable to provide such notification or announcement by such date, the Company shall provide prompt notification or announcement thereafter.

- 3 (1) Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights on the Date of Loss of Status; provided, however, that in such case, such Option holder may only exercise his or her stock acquisition rights until the earlier of (i) the expiration date of the exercise period as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the five-year anniversary of the Exercise Start Date.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the exercise period set forth in the table above, the Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the following cases (for item (ii), excluding the case where the stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company are granted to the Option holders pursuant to Note 4 below) only during the respective periods designated below:
 - (i) if the Exercise Start Date of the Option holder has not occurred by September 1, 2030 From September 2, 2030 until September 1, 2031.
 - (ii) if the general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves a merger agreement pursuant to which the Company is to be dissolved or a stock swap agreement or share transfer plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary (or, in the event a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is not required, if a resolution of the board or determination by the chief executive officer of the Company is passed):

 For 15 days from the day after the date of said approval.
 - (3) If an Option holder waives his or her stock acquisition rights, such Option holder may not exercise the said stock acquisition rights.
- In the event that the Company conducts an Organizational Restructuring, stock acquisition rights of Surviving Company shall be granted to each holder of the Residual Stock Acquisition Rights in accordance with the following terms and conditions. In such case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be canceled, and the Surviving Company shall issue new stock acquisition rights; provided, however, that this shall be limited to the case where the grant of stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company pursuant to the following conditions is stipulated in the absorption-type demerger agreement, incorporation-type demerger agreement, merger and spin-off agreement, new spin-off plan, stock swap agreement, or share transfer plan:
 - (1) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights of the Surviving Company to be Granted: The number of stock acquisition rights to be granted shall be equal to the number of Residual Stock Acquisition Rights.
 - (2) Class of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: Common stock of the Surviving Company.
 - (3) Number of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 2 above after taking into consideration the terms and conditions of the Organizational Restructuring.
 - (4) Amount Capitalized upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

 The amount capitalized upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted shall be the amount paid after restructuring as prescribed below multiplied by the number of shares of the Surviving Company to be issued upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights as determined in accordance with (3) above. The amount paid after restructuring shall be one yen per share of the Surviving Company, which may be granted upon exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted.
 - (5) Exercise Period for Stock Acquisition Rights:

 From the later of (i) the starting date of the exercise period for stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the effective date of Organizational Restructuring, and lasting until the expiration date for the exercise of stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above.
 - (6) Matters concerning Increases in Capital Stock and Additional Paid-in Capital in case of Issuance of Shares due to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - (i) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, shareholders' equity shall be increased by half the limit for increases in common stock that are calculated in accordance with Article 17-1 of the Japanese Company Accounting Regulations. Any amount less than one yen shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.
 - (ii) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, additional paid-in capital shall be increased by the amount remaining after deducting the increase in the limit for increase in common stock stipulated in (i) above.

- (7) Limitation on Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by Transfer:The acquisition of stock acquisition rights by transfer shall be subject to approval by resolution of the board.
- (8) Provisions for the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights:

 In the event that a general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves any of the following (or, when shareholder approval is not necessary, in the event that the board or the representative executive officer approves of any of the following), the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights without compensation on a date separately specified by the board:

- (Note) 1 The number of shares represented by one stock acquisition right is 1,000 shares.
 - 2 In the event that the Company conducts a stock split (including the free allocation of shares of common stock of the Company; hereinafter the same) or a reverse split of its common stock, the Conversion Ratio will be adjusted in accordance with the following formula:

Adjusted Conversion	_	Conversion Ratio prior to	v	Ratio of stock split
Ratio	_	adjustment	Λ	or reverse stock split

This adjustment will apply from the day following the record date in the case of a stock split and from the day on which the reverse stock split becomes effective in the case of a reverse stock split. However, in the event that the Company conducts a stock split that is conditioned on approval at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company of an increase in stockholders' equity or additional paid-in capital by decreasing the amount of surplus, and provided that the record date for such stock split is set prior to the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, from the day following the conclusion of such general meeting of shareholders, the adjustment will apply retroactively from the day following the record date. In addition to the above, the Conversion Ratio shall be reasonably adjusted as may be required in unavoidable circumstances.

- Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights on the Date of Loss of Status; provided, however, that in such case, such Option holder may only exercise his or her stock acquisition rights until the earlier of (i) the expiration date of the exercise period as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the five-year anniversary of the Exercise Start Date.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the exercise period set forth in the table above, the Option holders may exercise their stock acquisition rights in the following cases (for item (ii), excluding the case where the stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company are granted to the Option holders pursuant to Note 4 below) only during the respective periods designated below:
 - (i) if the Exercise Start Date of the Option holder has not occurred by September 1, 2032 From September 2, 2032 until September 2, 2033.
 - (ii) if the general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves a merger agreement pursuant to which the Company is to be dissolved or a stock swap agreement or share transfer plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary (or, in the event a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is not required, if a resolution of the board or determination by the chief executive officer of the Company is passed): For 15 days from the day after the date of said approval.
 - (3) If an Option holder waives his or her stock acquisition rights, such Option holder may not exercise the said stock acquisition rights.
- In the event that the Company conducts an Organizational Restructuring, stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company shall be granted to each holder of the Residual Stock Acquisition Rights in accordance with the following terms and conditions. In such case, the remaining stock acquisition rights shall be canceled, and the Surviving Company shall issue new stock acquisition rights; provided, however, that this shall be limited to the case where the grant of stock acquisition rights of the Surviving Company pursuant to the following conditions is stipulated in the absorption-type demerger agreement, incorporation-type demerger agreement, merger and spin-off agreement, new spin-off plan, stock swap agreement, or share transfer plan:
 - (1) Number of Stock Acquisition Rights of the Surviving Company to be Granted: The number of stock acquisition rights to be granted shall be equal to the number of Residual Stock Acquisition Rights.
 - (2) Class of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: Common stock of the Surviving Company.
 - (3) Number of Shares of the Surviving Company to be Issued upon Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 2 above after taking into consideration the terms and conditions of the Organizational Restructuring.
 - (4) Amount Capitalized upon Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:

 The amount capitalized upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted shall be the amount paid after restructuring as prescribed below multiplied by the number of shares of the Surviving Company to be issued upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights as determined in accordance with (3) above. The amount paid after restructuring shall be one yen per share of the Surviving Company, which may be granted upon exercise of each stock acquisition right to be granted.
 - (5) Exercise Period for Stock Acquisition Rights: From the later of (i) the starting date of the exercise period for stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above and (ii) the effective date of Organizational Restructuring, and lasting until the expiration date for the exercise of stock acquisition rights as stipulated in the table above.
 - (6) Matters concerning Increases in Capital Stock and Additional Paid-in Capital in case of Issuance of Shares due to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights:
 - (i) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, shareholders' equity shall be increased by half the limit for increases in common stock that are calculated in accordance with Article 17-1 of the Japanese Company Accounting Regulations. Any amount less than one yen shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.
 - (ii) In the event that shares are issued due to the exercise of stock acquisition rights, additional paid-in capital shall be increased by the amount remaining after deducting the increase in the limit for increase in common stock stipulated in (i) above.
 - (7) Limitation on Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by Transfer: The acquisition of stock acquisition rights by transfer shall be subject to approval by resolution of the board.
 - (8) Provisions for the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights:

In the event that a general meeting of shareholders of the Company approves any of the following (or, when shareholder approval is not necessary, in the event that the board or the representative executive officer approves of any of the following), the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights without compensation on a date separately specified by the board:

- (i) a proposed merger agreement under which the Company is to be dissolved;
- (ii) a proposed corporate division agreement or plan under which the Company would be split;
- (iii) a proposed share transfer agreement or plan that makes the Company a wholly owned subsidiary;
- (iv) a proposed amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company, with respect to all of its issued shares, shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of such shares by transfer; or
- (v) a proposed approval for an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation to add a provision that prescribes that the Company shall be required to obtain the approval of the shareholders of the Company for the acquisition of the shares to be issued upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights by transfer or that the Company shall obtain all of the shares of said class by a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders.
- (9) Other Conditions relating to the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights: To be determined pursuant to Note 3 above.

3. [Dividend Policy]

Our basic policy on profit distribution to shareholders is to make stable distributions based on consideration of our consolidated performance, while seeking to increase our enterprise value through active investment aimed at higher profitability and to increase net income per share. Based on our basic policy, we provide a fiscal year-end dividend once a year.

We also prescribe that the Company may distribute earnings subject to the resolution of the Board of Directors' meeting pursuant to the provisions of Article 459 of the Companies Act.

Based on such policy, we plan to distribute the year-end dividend of 30.00 yen per share as a distribution of earnings for the current fiscal year.

As for retained earnings, with the aim of improving our corporate value, we have actively invested in expanding new points of contact with consumers for our domestic business and investing in our overseas businesses. We also plan to use our retained earnings in our strategic investments for maintaining competitiveness and reinforcing growth. With these efforts, we seek to benefit our shareholders by improving future profitability. We also intend to flexibly acquire treasury stock, and we will try to improve capital efficiency and return profits to our shareholders.

(Note) The distribution of earnings for which record date belongs to the current fiscal year is as follows:

Date of Resolution	Total Dividend Amount (Millions of yen)	Dividend Amount per Share (Yen)

6 [Corporate Governance, etc.]

(1) [Status of Corporate Governance]

Fundamental Policies for Corporate Governance:

The purpose and basic policy of our group's corporate governance is to continuously enhance our corporate value by increasing transparency and securing the fairness and independence of our corporate management from the perspective of all stakeholders, including our shareholders and customers.

(i) System of Corporate Governance

A. Outline of System of Corporate Governance

We, as a holding company, use an "Audit & Supervisory Board Member system" for the purpose of ensuring the corporate governance of group companies, and have both the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board monitor and supervise the management operating the Company.

Our Board of Directors is composed of eight Directors (including three Outside Directors). Their roles are to supervise and make business judgments from an objective perspective. We have been working to enhance the supervisory function and to improve the decision-making process. Further, the term of office of each Director is one year for the purpose of clarifying the responsibilities of our management, and establishing a management system that may respond promptly to changes in the business environment.

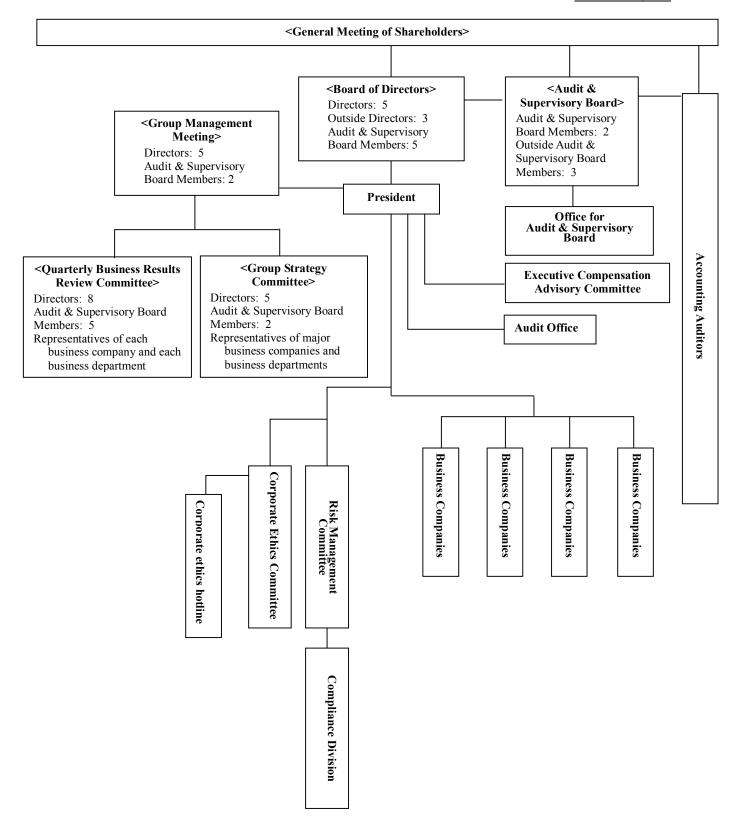

In addition to the supervisory function of the Board of Directors, the Audit & Supervisory Board is composed of five Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including three Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members). Their function is to monitor and supervise our management.

We have designated the above-stated three Outside Directors and three Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members (i.e., six persons in total) as our independent officers.

We, as a holding company, seek to govern our group companies with the management, audit, and supervisory systems as set out below:

- The Board of Directors shall hold a regular Board of Directors' meeting every month and also hold a special Board of Directors' meeting from time to time, as necessary, in accordance with the rules of the Board of Directors, to make decisions on matters concerning important business, such as management policy and management strategy and matters stipulated by laws or ordinances or our Articles of Incorporation. Further, we have established the "Group Management Meeting" comprising our Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members, which considers matters concerning the management strategy of our group and other important management issues and conducts preliminary reviews of matters for review by our Board of Directors.
- Furthermore, with respect to the nomination, promotion, and remuneration of Directors, an "Executive Compensation Advisory Committee," whose members include Outside Directors, has been established and operates with a high degree of transparency and fairness.

The following diagram illustrates the outline of our corporate governance system:

B. Reason for Adoption of Corporate Governance System

We, as a holding company, believe that our governance system using a "Board of Directors system" to make decisions is the most effective in ensuring the corporate governance within our group companies, and auditing and supervising the operations of each of our group companies for the purpose of actualizing and maintaining a high-quality management for the benefit of all stakeholders, including our shareholders and customers. The "Board of Directors system" consists of Directors who are experts in each business area and who receive advice from Outside Directors in terms of an objective and independent perspective based on their long career and extensive professional knowledge and an "Audit & Supervisory Board Member system," which consists of five Audit & Supervisory Board Members including Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members. For the foregoing reason, we have adopted our current governance system.

C. Status of Improvement of Internal Control System

Our fundamental philosophy toward the internal control system and the status of improvement thereof, details of which have been determined at the Board of Directors' meetings, are as follows:

(System to ensure that execution of duties by Directors and/or employees is in compliance with laws and regulations and the Articles of incorporation)

- To ensure that all Directors and employees of the Company and the Wacoal Group comply with laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation and conduct business based on sound social norms, we have enacted the "Wacoal Code of Ethics" and the "Corporate Ethics: Wacoal's Code of Conduct."
- Directors will take the initiative to ensure compliance and awareness of corporate ethics within the Wacoal Group.
- In order to improve our system of compliance and consider any compliance issues that may have a material impact on the Company and the Wacoal Group, we have established the Corporate Ethics Committee, which seeks to increase awareness of and educate employees about corporate ethics. Our representative Director and president acts as the chairperson, and our legal/compliance department is in charge of the committee.
- We have established a system under which our legal/compliance department is promptly notified if the Company becomes aware that a Director and/or employee of the Company and the Wacoal Group may have violated the "Wacoal Code of Ethics" or the "Corporate Ethics: Wacoal's Code of Conduct", or of any other compliance issues. We have also established an internal alert system (a corporate ethics hotline). After being notified and/or alerted, the legal/compliance department conducts an investigation and formulates preventive measures after discussions with the related department. If the issue is critical, the legal/compliance department will refer the matter to the Corporate Ethics Committee and will report the results of its deliberation to the Board of Directors and/or Audit & Supervisory Board.
- Wacoal's Code of Conduct prescribes that Directors, officers, and employees shall firmly refuse to comply with demands of antisocial forces and as a rule of conduct for risk management practices, our Risk Management Manual prescribes that none of Directors, officers, and employees shall have any relationship with antisocial forces. In order to handle unjust demands of antisocial forces, we cooperate with Outside specialized institutions, collect and/or control information related to antisocial forces, and are building an internal system.

(System concerning the Storage and Management of Information related to Execution of Duties by Directors)

- With the approval of the Board of Directors, we have enacted the Document Management Rules pursuant to which we store the following documents (including electromagnetic records; hereafter the same) along with any related materials:
 - Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, minutes of the Board of Directors' meetings, minutes of the Group Management meetings, documents for which a Director is the final decision maker, and any other documents prescribed in the Document Management Rules.
- The retention period for storage of the documents prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be 10 years. The storage of these documents shall be subject to the Document Management Rules, and the Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members shall have access to these documents at all times.

(Rules and Other Systems Concerning Loss and Risk Management)

- In order to understand the management risk within the group in general and to improve and/or strengthen our risk management system, we have established a Risk Management Committee, for which the Director in charge of risk management acts as chairperson. The Management Planning Department shall act as the organizer.
- The Risk Management Committee prescribes risk management rules, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, which form the basis for our risk management system. The Risk Management Committee clarifies the responsibilities by risk category pursuant to these rules, and formulates a risk management system that thoroughly and/or comprehensively controls potential risk within the group.

- The Risk Management Committee regularly reports on the operations of the Wacoal Group's risk management system to the Board of Directors.

(System to Ensure Effective Execution of Duties by Directors)

- In order to enhance appropriate decision making by our Directors, we will appoint several independent Outside Directors.
- We will formulate a medium-term management plan to be shared by the Directors and/or employees within the group and will direct and confirm courses of action and business targets in the mid to short term that are consistent with such plan.
- We will follow the business results of each group company on a monthly basis and report back to the Board of Directors. In addition, by holding "quarterly business meetings" and "group strategy committee meetings", we will confirm the business results and the implementation of measures and policies, consider measures in the event targets are not achieved, and review such targets, as may be necessary.

(System to Ensure Appropriate Business Conduct within Group Companies)

- We have enacted and managed our group companies in accordance with our Group Management Rules, which prescribe basic policies regarding the management of group companies and matters to be decided by our Board of Directors, as well as matters to be reported to the Company.
- We conduct any inter-company transaction fairly in compliance with laws and regulations, accounting principles, and the tax system.
- Our audit office will conduct internal audits, including an audit of the establishment and/or operation of our compliance system and risk management system, within the group companies. The audit office will report the results of its audits to the Board of Directors and appropriate departments, and will give guidance and/or advice on system formulation to group companies to ensure the appropriate conduct of business.
- We adopt a corporate officer system under which we seek to build an appropriate and efficient management system which clearly defines the delegation of authority and responsibilities.

(Matters Concerning Assistants to Audit & Supervisory Board Members)

- To assist the Audit & Supervisory Board Members, we have employees who may work as assistants at the secretariat office of the Audit & Supervisory Board.
- Such assistants shall be full-time employees and the Audit & Supervisory Board Members will be consulted regarding the appointment, evaluation, relocation and discipline of such assistants as well as other related matters, and their opinions will be respected to ensure the effectiveness and independence of such assistants.

(Reporting System of Directors and Employees to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members and Other Reporting System to Audit & Supervisory Board Members)

- Directors and employees will promptly report to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members whether they become aware of a material fact that violates the applicable laws or regulations or Articles of Incorporation of the Company or the group companies, of misconduct at the Company or the group companies, or of a fact that may cause significant damage to the Company or the group companies. Any Director or employee who makes a report will not be disadvantaged on account of making such report.
- Through the reporting of the following matters in addition to statutory matters to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members by Directors and employees, we strive to have the Audit & Supervisory Board Members' audits conducted effectively:

matters referred to the Group Management Meeting;

monthly and quarterly group management conditions;

results of internal audits;

the condition of our internal reporting/alerting system; and other significant matters.

 Audit & Supervisory Board Members will attend meetings of the Board of Directors and may also attend other key meetings of the Group. In addition, the Audit & Supervisory Board Members will preside at "Audit & Supervisory Board Group Meetings" where they will be provided with periodic reports.

(Other Systems to Ensure Effective Audit by the Audit & Supervisory Board Members)

- The majority of the Audit & Supervisory Board Members will be independent Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members to enhance the transparency and neutrality of management.
- The Audit & Supervisory Board Members may order employees who belong to the audit office to perform any matters that are required to provide audit services. In addition, the Audit & Supervisory Board Members may have their assistants request that the Company reimburse expenses incurred in performing their duties.

- The Audit & Supervisory Board Members will regularly meet with the audit office and the Accounting Auditor to receive reports and to exchange opinions.
- The Audit & Supervisory Board may consult legal counsel, certified public accountants, consultants, or other outside advisers as it deems necessary.

D. Status of Accounting Audit

An accounting audit agreement has been executed between the Company and Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC ("Tohmatsu") pursuant to the Companies Act and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. There are no special relationships between the Company and the said accounting firm and any of their partners who have been engaged in the audit of the Company. Also, the said accounting firm takes precautionary measures not to have any of its engagement partners participate in the audit of the Company for any longer period than the prescribed maximum period. The names of the certified public accountants who were engaged in the audit of the Company and the composition of the assistants for the audit services for this fiscal period are as follows:

Names of the certified public accountants who were engaged in the audit:

Designated Limited Liability Partners and Managing Members: Fumihiko Kimura, Koichiro Tsukuda, Seiichiro Nakashima

Composition of the assistants for the audit services:

Ten certified public accountants and sixteen other persons

E. Matters Concerning Limitation of Liability Agreements with Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members

In order to have excellent persons as Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members, our Articles of Incorporation prescribe that we may execute a limitation of liability agreement with Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members to limit their liability for damages in certain instances, and Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members have executed such agreement with the Company.

A summary of the above-mentioned limitation of liability agreement is as follows:

- The maximum amount of liability for damages incurred due to negligence of duties by the Outside Director or the Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member shall be the minimum liability amount as provided by Paragraph 1, Article 427 of the Companies Act.
- The foregoing limitation of liability shall be accepted only if the Outside Director or the Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member is in good faith and is not grossly negligent in performing his or her business duties.

F. Number of Directors

Our Articles of Incorporation prescribe that the number of Directors of the Company shall be not more than eight.

G. Decision-Making Body for Distribution of Earnings, etc.

Our Articles of Incorporation prescribe that matters set out in each Item of Paragraph 1, Article 459 of the Companies Act (including the matters concerning distribution of earnings) shall be determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors, unless otherwise provided for in any laws or regulations, for the purpose of performing an expeditious profit return to our shareholders.

H. Requirement for Appointment of Directors

Our Articles of Incorporation prescribe that resolutions to appoint Directors shall be made by a majority vote of the voting rights of shareholders present at a General Meeting of Shareholders, where such shareholders present shall hold shares representing one-third or more of the voting rights of all shareholders who are entitled to exercise such voting rights and that resolutions to appoint Directors shall not be adopted by cumulative voting.

I. Requirement for Special Resolutions at General Meeting of Shareholders

Our Articles of Incorporation prescribe that a resolution as stipulated in Paragraph 2, Article 309 of the Companies Act shall be adopted by a two-thirds majority of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the General Meeting of Shareholders, who shall represent one-third or more of the total number of voting rights of the shareholders who are entitled to exercise such voting rights. The purpose of this provision is to more surely secure the quorum for a special resolution at any General Meeting of Shareholders.

(ii) Status of Audit & Supervisory Board Members and Internal Audit Department

Our Audit & Supervisory Board Members and internal audit department (audit office) have a regular meeting for reporting and confirmation once a month. The main purpose of such meeting is to report the discussions at major meetings at which our Audit & Supervisory Board Members attended, activities conducted by our audit office, and other matters. We have implemented an audit system allowing the sharing of documents and information necessary for audit so that audit working papers are mutually exchanged and confirmed by our Audit & Supervisory Board Members and audit office, and the audit can be performed more efficiently and effectively through alliance between our Audit & Supervisory Board Members and audit office.

The number of staff of our internal audit department (audit office) as of June 26, 2015, was 12.

Further, our Audit & Supervisory Board Members and Accounting Auditor have regular meetings for discussion six times a year. The purpose of such discussion is mainly to report and confirm the plan and status of the audit and to exchange opinions on the management. In addition, they have a meeting from time to time as necessary.

Standing Audit & Supervisory Board Member Mr. Tomoki Nakamura has many years of accounting experience at our Accounting Department with a respectable degree of finance and accounting knowledge. Also, Audit & Supervisory Board Member Mr. Hiroshi Shirai is qualified as a certified public accountant with a considerable degree of finance and accounting knowledge as well.

(iii) Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members

We have three Outside Directors and three Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

Outside Directors consist of persons who possess experience with corporate management including financial administration and/ or overseas business development and person who plays an active role in the field of arts and culture in Japan and overseas. Each director takes a role in improving the appropriateness of the decision making by the Board of Directors by giving objective and independent advice based on their vast experience in each business area and extensive professional knowledge. Also, we have elected Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members who have experiences as business administrators in financial services, independent attorneys at law or independent certified public accountants having a considerable degree of finance and accounting knowledge independently from us, to our Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members. Each Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member conducts a strict audit on the legality of Directors' decision making and performance of their businesses from a technical perspective by maintaining high levels of independence.

The Company prescribes "Criteria for Appointment of Officers" and "Criteria for Appointment of Outside Officers (that ensures independence)" for appointing an Outside Director and an Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member.

Upon the appointment of an Outside Director or an Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Executive Compensation Advisory Committee nominates a candidate based on the following criteria for submission to a meeting of shareholders as an agenda item.

- A candidate with superior character and knowledge and mentally and physically healthy;
- A candidate pursues a law-abiding spirit;
- A candidate possesses vast experience in business operation, company management, legal community, administration, accounting, education or culture and art;
- A candidate is not in violation of the "Criteria for Appointment of Outside Officers (that ensures independence)" separately prescribed by the Company;
- A candidate is not currently holding a position as an officer of 4 or more listed companies;
- By appointing such candidate, Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board will each have a balanced knowledge, experience and expertise that ensures diversity;

We also believe that an Outside Director and an Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member shall maintain an independent position so that each will not cause any conflict of interest with general shareholders. From this aspect, the Company shall appoint a candidate for an Outside Officer who does not fall under any of the following items:

- 1. Has held a position to execute duties at any of our group companies;
- 2. A major shareholder holding the shares of the Company under its name or other name, is equal to or higher than 5% as percentage of voting rights; in case such major shareholders is a legal entity or an association such as general partnership ("Entity"), a candidate who is holding a position to execute duties at such Entities;
- 3. A candidate who:
 - is the major client of our group or considers our group as the candidate's major client; in case such candidate is an Entity, a candidate who is holding a position to execute duties at such Entity;
 - is the major lender of our group; in case such lender is an Entity, a candidate who is holding a position to execute duties at such Entity;
 - is holding a position to execute duties at lead manager of our group; or
 - is holding a position to execute duties at any Entity in which our group hold shares, whose percentage of voting rights is equal to or greater than 5%.
- 4. A certified public accountant who works at an audit firm, which is the Independent Auditors of our group;

- Any legal counsel, accountant, tax accountant, patent attorney, consultant or other expert who receives large amount of monies or other assets from our group; in case such candidate is an Entity, an expert who works at such Entity;
- 6. Anyone who receives large amount of donation from our group; in case such candidate is an Entity, a candidate who is holding a position to execute duties at such Entity;
- 7. A candidate who is holding a position to execute duties at other companies having a relationship involving mutual appointment of outside officers;
- 8. A spouse or second-degree relative of a person (limited to those significant) who falls under any of the items under 1 through 7 above;
- 9. A candidate who used to fall under any of the items under 1 through 8 above during the past three years;
- 10. A candidate who is deemed to have a special circumstance where a possible conflict of interest with general shareholders of the Company may arise.

It should be noted, however, that a candidate who falls under any of the items under 2 through 9 above, but who fulfills the requirements of an outside officer under the Companies Act, and if the Company deems it appropriate for such candidate to be appointed as an outside officer, may exceptionally become a candidate for an outside officer by describing the reasons of the Company for making such judgment.

For our Outside Directors, the Management Planning Department hands out documents setting out the proposals presented to the Board of Directors' meetings in advance and gives prior explanations on important matters to them. To our Audit & Supervisory Board Members, we have appointed full-time assistants to assist them and adopted such system so as to enable us to support them, including the Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members. The prior explanations on the proposals presented to the Board of Directors' meetings are made by our Audit & Supervisory Board Members and their assistants.

Each one of our Outside Directors and two of our Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members hold 3,000 and 25,000 shares of common stock of the Company, respectively. Other than the foregoing, there are no special interests between our Outside Directors or Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Company.

The reasons for the election of our Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members are as follows:

Title	Name	Reasons for Election
Outside Director	Mamoru Ozaki	He is an influential individual who has held public positions, such as the Administrative Vice Minister of Finance and the President of National Life Finance Corporation. Since July 2003, he has provided advice mainly regarding financial matters and Chinese business to the Company as our adviser. We believe that he is qualified to be an Outside Director of the Company that is aiming to further enhance social responsibility of corporations in the future, as he has broad social insight.
		Also, because he meets the eligibility requirements which the Company prescribes under "Criteria for Appointment of Outside
		Officers (to ensure independence)" and because there are no concerns that any conflict of interest with general shareholders may arise, we have designated him as an independent officer.
Outside Director	Atsushi Horiba	He has wide experience and knowledge with domestic and overseas business deployment. We believe that he is qualified to be an Outside Director of the Company that is aiming to further strengthen the overseas business deployment.
		Also, because he meets the eligibility requirements which the Company prescribes under "Criteria for Appointment of Outside
		Officers (to ensure independence)" and because there are no concerns that any conflict of interest with general shareholders may arise, we have designated him as an independent officer.
Outside Director	Madoka Mayuzumi	Ms. Mayuzumi plays an active role as a haiku poet in the field of arts and culture in Japan and overseas. While serving as Advisor of the Company from April 2014, she has provided advice that addresses social challenges and educational training for employees of the Company and Wacoal Corp. We expect that, with her knowledge and experience, she will contribute to the Company's management which respects diversity.

	Г	1
		Although Ms. Mayuzumi has never been involved in the Company's management other than by way of serving as an Outside Director or Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member in the past, we believe that she will be able to perform her duties appropriately for the above-stated reasons.
		Also, because she meets the eligibility requirements which the Company prescribes under "Criteria for Appointment of Outside
		Officers (to ensure independence)" and because there are no concerns that any conflict of interest with general shareholders may arise, we have designated her as an independent officer.
Outside Audit &	Akira Katayanagi	We believe that he is qualified to be our Outside Audit & Supervisory
	Akira Katayanagi
Supervisory Board Member		Board Member, as he is experienced in the finance industry and has extensive experience and knowledge cultivated outside our industry.
		Also, because he meets the eligibility requirements which the Company prescribes under "Criteria for Appointment of Outside
		Officers (to ensure independence)" and because there are no concerns that any conflict of interest with general shareholders may arise, we have designated him as an independent officer.
Outside Audit &	Yoko Takemura	We believe that she is qualified to be our Outside Audit & Supervisory
Supervisory Board Member		Board Member, as she has legal knowledge and great store of experience of commercial issues as an attorney at law.
		Also, because she meets the eligibility requirements which the Company prescribes under "Criteria for Appointment of Outside
		Officers (to ensure independence)" and because there are no concerns that any conflict of interest with general shareholders may arise, we have designated her as an independent officer.
Outside Audit &	Hiroshi Shirai	We believe that Mr. Shirai is qualified to be our Outside Audit &
Supervisory Board Member		Supervisory Board Member, as he has knowledge and experience in accounting and finance (including U.S. accounting standards) as a certified public accountant.
		Mr. Shirai worked at Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC, our accounting auditor, from August 2007 to September 2011, but he was never involved in the audit services engaged for the Company during such period. It has been three years and eight months since Mr. Shirai left Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC.
		Also, because he meets the eligibility requirements which the Company prescribes under "Criteria for Appointment of Outside
		Officers (to ensure independence)" and because there are no concerns that any conflict of interest with general shareholders may arise, we have designated him as an independent officer.

(iv) Details of Remunerations Paid to Officers

A. Aggregate amount of remunerations, etc., paid to each category of officers, aggregate amount of remunerations, etc., by type thereof, as well as the number of relevant officers:

Category of Officers	Aggregate Amount of Remunerations,	Aggregate Am	Aggregate Amount of Remunerations, etc., by Type Thereof (Millions of yen)			Number of Relevant Officers
curegory or emoves	etc. (Millions of yen)	Basic Remuneration	Stock Option	Bonus	Retirement Allowance
Directors (Excluding Outside Directors)	290	210	44	35	_	6
Audit & Supervisory Board Members (Excluding Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members)	33	33		_	_	2
Outside officers	39	39	_	_	_	5

(Note) As of March 31, 2015, the numbers of Directors (Excluding Outside Directors), Audit & Supervisory Board Members (Excluding Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members), and Outside Officers were five, two, and five, respectively. These numbers do not match the numbers described above because the numbers described above include one Director who resigned as Director upon the close of the 66th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 27, 2014.

B. Aggregate amount, etc., of the consolidated remunerations, etc., of the person who receives 100 million yen or more as remunerations, etc., on a consolidated basis:

				Amount of Consolidated Remunerations, etc., by Type Thereof (Millions of yen)
Name	Category of Officers	Relevant Company	Basic Remuneration	Stock Option	Bonus	Retirement Allowance	Consolidated Remunerations , etc. (Millions of yen)
Yoshikata Tsukamoto	Director	Wacoal Holdings Corp.	109	21	16	-	170
	Director	Wacoal Corp.	24	_		_

C. Details and Method of Determination of Policies for Determination of Amount of Remunerations, etc., Paid to Officers or Method of Calculating such Amount

Our compensation system for officers is designed by the "Executive Compensation Advisory Committee," whose members include Outside Directors, and therefore, such system is highly objective and transparent.

The remunerations paid to Directors under said system consists of "Basic Remuneration," the amount of which is fixed, and "Bonus," which is linked to the business results of each fiscal year, as well as "Stock Option," which is linked to medium- and long-term business results. In the case of Outside Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members who shall be in the position independent from the management, only "Basic Remuneration" is paid because any remuneration linked to business results are not appropriate in such case.

The level of remuneration has been set according to the business results and scale of the Company, compared with other companies within the same industry or of the same scale.

The maximum annual amounts of the basic remuneration paid to Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members were determined to be 350 million yen (excluding the amount paid as salaries for employees to the Directors who concurrently serve as employees) and 75 million yen, respectively, by the resolution adopted at the 57th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 29, 2005. The amount of bonuses was determined to be such amount as is determined according to the business results of each fiscal year, which was resolved at each Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held for the relevant year. Further, the maximum annual amount of stock options was determined to be 70 million yen by the resolution adopted at the 60th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 27, 2008.

The retirement allowance system for officers was abolished by the resolution adopted at the 57th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 29, 2005.

Wacoal Holdings Corp. and Subsidiaries

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Financial Statements - Wacoal Holdings Corp. (the "Company") and subsidiaries are predominantly engaged in one industry, the manufacture and sale of apparel, including foundation garments, lingerie, nightwear and outerwear in Japan, the United States of America, Europe and certain Asian countries.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements, stated in Japanese yen, have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Consolidation - The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its majority-owned subsidiaries (collectively, the "Companies"). All intercompany transactions and balances are eliminated.

Some foreign subsidiaries of the Company have a fiscal year ending December 31. The accounts of those subsidiaries are included in the Company's consolidated financial statements based on the subsidiaries' fiscal year. There were no material intervening events that occurred with respect to these subsidiaries.

Investments in affiliated companies where the Companies' ownership is 20% to 50% are accounted for using the equity method.

Significant influence is generally deemed to exist if the Companies have an ownership interest in the voting stock of the investee between 20% and 50%, although other factors are considered in determining whether the equity method of accounting is appropriate.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash and cash equivalents include all time deposits (all of which are interest bearing) with original maturities of three months or less.

Foreign Currency Translation - Assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries have been translated to Japanese yen at period-end exchange rates and income and expenses have been translated using average exchange rates for the period. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating consolidated financial statements, net of tax, are included in accumulated other comprehensive income, a separate component of equity. Exchange gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions and the conversion of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are included in other income (expenses) in the consolidated statements of income.

Foreign currency translation gains (losses) for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were $300 million, $161 million and $(146) million, respectively. They have been included in other - net of other income (expenses).

Marketable Securities and Investments - The Companies classify their marketable securities and investments into one of three categories: trading, held to maturity or available for sale. Trading securities are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term. Trading securities are recorded at fair value and unrealized holding gains and losses on trading securities are included in earnings. Held-to-maturity securities are measured at amortized cost. The Companies classify debt securities as held to maturity only if the Companies have the positive intent and ability to hold those securities to maturity. Available-for-sale securities are carried at fair value with a corresponding recognition of unrealized holding gains or losses (net of tax) in accumulated other comprehensive income or loss, a separate component of equity, until realized. Equity securities that do not have readily determinable fair values are recorded at cost. Gains and losses on sales of investments are computed based on cost determined using the average cost method.

If a decline in the fair value of marketable securities and investments is determined to be other than temporary, an impairment charge is recorded in the consolidated statements of income. The Companies periodically determine whether a decline in the fair value of marketable securities and investments is deemed to be other than temporary based on criteria that include the duration of the market decline, the extent to which cost exceeds fair value, the financial position and business outlook of the issuer and the intent and ability of the Companies to retain the impaired marketable securities and investments for a sufficient period of time for anticipated recovery in fair value.

Allowance for Sales Returns - Allowance for sales returns is estimated based on historical products returns experience, sales movements, and the overall retail industry situation.

Allowance for Doubtful Receivables - Allowance for doubtful notes and receivables is estimated based on historical collection experience and additional information including current economic conditions and creditworthiness of each applicable customer.

Inventories - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, cost being determined by the first-in, first-out method for raw materials and the average cost method for work in process and finished products. Cost includes net prices paid for materials purchased, production labor cost, factory overhead and charges for customs duties.

Property, Plant and Equipment - Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is computed by the declining-balance method, except for buildings acquired on or after April 1, 1998, which are depreciated using the straight-line method, based upon the estimated useful lives of the assets. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Buildings and building improvements: 2 - 50 years (mainly 38 years)

Machinery and equipment: 2 - 20 years (mainly 5 years)

Depreciation expenses for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 are \(\frac{\pma}{3}\),356 million, \(\frac{\pma}{3}\),212 million and \(\frac{\pma}{3}\),037 million, respectively.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets - The carrying values of long-lived assets, held and used by the Companies, are evaluated for impairment whenever there is an event or change in circumstances that indicates that such assets have been impaired or that the carrying amounts of such assets might not be recoverable. The carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable if it exceeds the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the asset. That assessment shall be based on the carrying amount of the asset at the date it is tested for recoverability, whether in use or under development. The impairment loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of a long-lived asset exceeds its fair value. The Companies recorded no impairment charges on long-lived assets for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets - Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price of an acquired entity over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

Goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if conditions indicate an earlier review is necessary. The goodwill is allocated to the reporting unit in which the business that created the goodwill resides. To test for goodwill impairment, the carrying value of each reporting unit is compared with its fair value. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the goodwill impairment test is performed by comparing the carrying amount of reporting unit goodwill with its implied fair value. If the carrying amount of reporting unit goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess.

To test for impairment of other intangible assets with indefinite useful lives, the carrying value of an intangible asset is compared with its fair value. If the carrying amount of an intangible asset with indefinite useful life exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess.

Other intangible assets with estimable useful lives consist primarily of brands, customer relationships and software and are amortized over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Brands: 20 - 25 years (mainly 25 years)

Customer relationships: 7 years

Software: 5 years

Asset Retirement Obligations - The Companies have obligations arising from contractual commitments to remove leasehold improvements from leased facilities and return the property to a specified condition when the lease terminates. The Companies recognize asset retirement obligations at the inception of a lease. The asset retirement obligations are measured with an expected present value technique based on historical experience and recorded in other long-term liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets and are subsequently adjusted for changes in estimated disposal costs. The difference between the gross expected future cash flow and its present value is accreted over the life of the related lease, which is determined using best estimate because the Companies' lease contracts generally have automatic renewal articles. The associated estimated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset and depreciated over its useful life.

Termination and Retirement Plans - Termination and retirement benefits are accounted for in accordance with the guidance for retirement benefits. The Companies amortize net actuarial gains and losses and prior service cost over the average employees' remaining service period by the declining-balance method and by the straight-line method, respectively. Provisions for termination and retirement benefits include those for directors of the Companies.

The Companies do not recognize a gain or loss on settlement of the pension obligation when the cost of all settlements in a year is less than or equal to the sum of the service cost and interest cost components of net periodic pension cost for the plan for the year.

Leases - Certain noncancelable leases are classified as capital leases and the leased assets are included as part of property, plant and equipment. Other leases are classified as operating leases and are not capitalized. The payments on such leases are recorded as expense. The rental expense under operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis.

Treasury Stock - The Companies account for treasury stock under the cost method and include treasury stock as a component of equity.

Acquisitions - The Companies account for acquisitions using the acquisition method in accordance with the guidance for business combinations. The Companies allocate the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on the estimated fair values at the date of acquisition, including intangible assets that can be identified and named. The purchase price in excess of the fair value of the net assets is recorded as goodwill.

Revenue Recognition - The Companies recognize revenue on sales to retailers, mail order catalog sales and internet sales when (1) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (2) delivery has occurred resulting in transfer of title and risk of loss, (3) the sales price is fixed or determinable, and (4) collectability is reasonably assured. As for consignment sales, the Companies recognize revenue when the products are sold to the ultimate customer. The Companies recognize revenue on direct retailing sales at the Companies' directly managed retail stores at the point of sale to the customer.

Shipping and Handling Costs - Shipping and handling fees billed to customers are classified in net sales. Shipping and handling costs are expensed as incurred. Shipping and handling costs for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were \(\frac{1}{2}\),487 million, \(\frac{1}{2}\),5708 million and \(\frac{1}{2}\),479 million, respectively, and have been included in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Advertising Expenses - Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were \(\frac{\pma}{13}\),103 million, \(\frac{\pma}{14}\),295 million and \(\frac{\pma}{13}\),146 million, respectively, and have been included in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Research and Development Costs - Research and development costs are expensed as incurred. Research and development costs for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were \mathbb{\pm}869 million, \mathbb{\pm}8808 million and \mathbb{\pm}788 million, respectively, and have been included in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Consumption Taxes - Consumption taxes have been excluded from sales.

Income Taxes - The provision for income taxes is determined under the asset and liability method in accordance with the guidance for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined for temporary differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities and tax loss carryforwards at presently enacted tax rates. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized in the future.

The Companies assess their income tax positions and record tax benefits for all years subject to examination based upon their evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available as of the end of the fiscal year. For those tax positions only where there is greater than 50% likelihood that the tax position will be sustained, the Companies record the largest amount of tax benefit that may potentially be realized upon ultimate settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information.

Share-Based Compensation - Share-based compensation is accounted for in accordance with the guidance for stock compensation. The Company measures share-based compensation cost at the grant date, based on the fair value of the award and recognizes the cost over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period. The fair value of the award is estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model.

Derivatives - Derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, are accounted for in accordance with the guidance for derivatives and hedging. Because such derivative instruments are not designated as hedges, changes in the fair value are recorded in earnings.

Subsequent Events - In accordance with the guidance for subsequent events, the Company has evaluated subsequent events through June 26, 2015.

Reclassifications - Certain reclassifications have been made to the prior years' consolidated financial statements to conform to the current year's presentation.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements:

Revenue Recognition - In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standard Board (the "FASB") issued a new accounting standard related to revenue recognition. This guidance is based on the principle that revenue is recognized to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This standard provides comprehensive guidance, and requires the disclosure of information to enable users of financial statements to understand the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016 and interim periods within that annual period. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adoption on the Company's consolidated financial position, result of operations, or cash flows.

Extraordinary and Unusual Items - In January 2015, the FASB issued a new accounting standard related to extraordinary and unusual items. This guidance eliminates from U.S. GAAP the concept of extraordinary items and the requirements to 1) segregate an extraordinary item from the results of ordinary operations, 2) present the item separately on the income statement, net of tax, after income from continuing operations and 3) disclose income taxes and earnings-per-share data applicable to the extraordinary item. This guidance is effective for fiscal years and interim periods within that annual period, beginning after December 15, 2015. It is not expected to have an impact on the Companies' consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows, since it relates only to disclosure requirements.

Fair Value Measurement - In May 2015, the FASB issued a new standard which amends fair value measurement. This standard removes the requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy all investments for which fair value is measured using the net asset value per share practical expedient. The amendments also remove the requirement to make certain disclosures for all investments that are eligible to be measured at fair value using the net asset value per share practical expedient. Rather, those disclosures are limited to investments for which the entity has elected to measure the fair value using that practical expedient. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2015, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have an impact on the Companies' consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows, since it relates only to disclosure requirements.

2. TRANSLATION INTO U.S. DOLLAR STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements are stated in Japanese yen, the currency of the country in which the Company is incorporated and operates. The translations of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts are included solely for convenience of readers outside of Japan and have been made at the rate of $119.96 to $1, the noon buying rate for yen in New York City as of March 31, 2015. Such translations should not be construed as representations that the Japanese yen amounts could be converted into U.S. dollars at the above or any other rate.

3. MARKETABLE SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS

Held-to-Maturity and Available-for-Sale Securities - The fair value of debt and marketable equity securities classified as held to maturity and available for sale is based on quoted market prices as of March 31, 2015 and 2014. The cost, gross unrealized gain and loss and the fair value of held-to-maturity and available-for-sale securities by major security type were as follows:

There were no available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities that have been in a continuous unrealized loss position for more than 12 months as of March 31, 2015 and 2014. Gross unrealized holding losses and fair values of available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities, all of which have been in a continuous unrealized loss position for less than 12 months as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, were as follows:

As of March 31, 2015, the available-for-sale securities in a continuous unrealized loss position are composed of one equity security and one mutual fund. The severity of decline was less than 13.1%. The Companies periodically determine whether a decline in the fair value of available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities is deemed to be other than temporary based on criteria that includes the duration of market decline, the extent to which cost exceeds fair value, the financial position and business outlook of the issuer and the intent and ability of the Companies to retain the impaired available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities for sufficient period of time for anticipated recovery in fair value as described in Note 1. No available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities were identified that meet the Companies' criteria for recognition of an impairment loss on available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities in unrealized loss position presented above. Therefore, the Companies do not believe the unrealized losses represent an other-than-temporary impairment as of March 31, 2015 and 2014.

Future maturities of debt securities and mutual funds classified as available for sale excluding mutual funds without fixed maturities as of March 31, 2015, were as follows:

During the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2013, the Companies exchanged certain equity securities for other marketable securities. The Companies recorded the newly received securities at fair value and recognized a gain of \(\frac{1}{2}\)1 million in the year ended March 31, 2015. There was no gain or loss recognized for the exchange transaction during the year ended March 31, 2013 as there was no difference between the carrying amount of the security transferred and the fair value of the security received. There was no exchange of marketable securities for the year ended March 31, 2014.

The amount of impairment charges the Companies recognized on available-for-sale securities in which declines in fair value were other than temporary was \mathbb{4}4 million, \mathbb{4}47 million and \mathbb{4}55 million in the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Trading Securities - There were no trading securities consisting of mutual funds as of March 31, 2015 and 2014. A subsidiary in the United States of America had trading securities consisting of mutual funds, which were recorded as marketable securities and investments at the fair value of ¥683 million as of March 31, 2013. The Companies recorded a loss of ¥9 million for the year ended March 31, 2013, that related to trading securities still held as of March 31, 2013.

Cost-Method Securities - Investments in nonmarketable equity securities for which there are no readily determinable fair values were accounted for using the cost method and aggregated \(\frac{1}{2}\),295 million and \(\frac{1}{2}\),362 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. Investments in nonmarketable equity securities are reviewed annually or upon the occurrence of an event for other-than-temporary impairment. The Companies recognized impairment charges on investments in nonmarketable equity securities of \(\frac{1}{2}\)10 million and \(\frac{1}{2}\)261 million in the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2013, respectively. There were no impairment charges on investments in nonmarketable equity securities for the year ended March 31, 2014.

The subsidiary recorded the proceeds from the insurance settlement in cost of sales in the consolidated statements of income for the year ended March 31, 2013.

6. INVESTMENTS IN AFFILIATED COMPANIES

Investments are accounted for using the equity method of accounting if the investment provides the Companies the ability to exercise significant influence over an investee. Significant influence is generally deemed to exist if the Companies have an ownership interest in the voting stock of the investee between 20% and 50%, although other factors are considered in determining whether the equity method of accounting is appropriate. The Companies record investments in equity method investees meeting these characteristics as "Investments in affiliated companies." Under the equity method, the Companies record their proportionate share of an affiliated companies' income or loss based on the most recently available financial statements.

The primary affiliated companies and percentage of ownership as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, were as follows:

	Percentage of	Ownership (%)
Name of Investee	2015	2014

7. ACQUISITIONS

Eveden - On April 10, 2012, the Company acquired all of the shares of Eveden Group Limited (currently Wacoal Europe Limited, "Eveden"), which manufactures and sells innerwear and swimsuits for women in Europe and the United States of America, in the amount of ¥19,961 million, inclusive of ¥2,581 million of funds to repay Eveden's preexisting debts and of ¥3,597 million to acquire the preferred shares and made it the Company's wholly owned subsidiary. The acquisition aims to expand the Company's overseas operations. This will enable the group to accelerate the Company's globalization strategy and to expand the target customer segment by effectively utilizing sales channels, technology, management know-how and brand strength of both companies.

The Company has been consolidating Eveden since April 1, 2012, because the impact of the result of operations and the changes in the financial position of Eveden from April 1, 2012 to April 10, 2012, was insignificant.

Acquisition-related costs were ¥456 million, of which ¥45 million and ¥411 million had been included in the results of operations for the years ended March 31, 2013, and 2012, respectively, in selling, general and administrative expenses.

As a result of the purchase price allocation, the Company has recognized \(\pm\)10,662 million of goodwill and \(\pm\)5,499 million of brand and these are classified as goodwill and other intangible assets, respectively, on the consolidated balance sheets. Goodwill is not deductible for tax purposes. The amount of brand will be amortized based on the estimated useful lives of 20 to 25 years.

During the year ended March 31, 2013, the Company adjusted the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the acquisition date based on the information the Company obtained subsequent to the acquisition date. These adjustments are reflected retroactively to the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the acquisition date.

Fair value of assets acquired, liabilities assumed and noncontrolling interests on the acquisition date were as follows:

	Million	Millions of Yen
	April 1, 2012

9. SHORT-TERM BANK LOANS AND LONG-TERM DEBT

Short-term bank loans as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, consisted of the following:

	Million	Millions of Yen
	2015	2014
nk loans	¥10,038	¥16,630

The weighted-average annual interest rates on short-term bank loans as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 were 0.4% and 0.6%, respectively.

Unused lines of credit for short-term financing as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, aggregated \(\frac{4}{25}\),189 million and \(\frac{4}{25}\),377 million, respectively. The Companies compensate banks for these facilities in the form of commitment fees, which were not material during the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2014.

Long-term debt as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, are summarized below. The interest rates and maturities are for loans as of March 31, 2015.

A subsidiary has pledged assets as security for loans. As of March 31, 2015 and 2014, assets pledged as collateral for bank loans were as follows:

	Million	Millions of Yen
	2015	2014
Land	¥ 150	¥ 888
Buildings	258	595
Machinery and equipment		21
Total	¥ 408	¥ 1,504

As is customary in Japan, both short-term and long-term loans are made under general agreements which provide that security and guarantees for future and present indebtedness will be given upon request of the bank. The bank has the right to offset cash deposits against obligations that have become due or, in the event of default, against all obligations due to the bank.

10. LEASES

The Companies lease most of their store premises, some of their distribution centers, and certain equipment. Most leases have automatic renewal provisions and allow the Companies to extend the lease term beyond the initial base period, subject to the terms agreed at lease inception. Future minimum rental commitments on operating leases having a remaining noncancelable lease term in excess of one year as of March 31, 2015 are presented below:

Year Ending March 31	Millions of Yen
2016	¥ 666
2017	539
2018	397
2019	284
2020	65

Total	¥ 2,081

Rental expenses were \(\frac{4}{6}\),476 million, \(\frac{4}{5}\),975 million and \(\frac{4}{5}\),780 million for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively, and have been included in selling, general and administrative expenses.

11. ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATIONS

The Companies recorded the fair value of asset retirement obligations in order to recognize legal obligations associated with the removal of leasehold improvements from leased facilities and return of the property to a specified condition when the lease terminates.

A reconciliation of the beginning and ending aggregate carrying amount of the asset retirement obligation was as follows:

	N	Millions of Yen
	2015	2014	2013

12. TERMINATION AND RETIREMENT PLANS

Employee Retirement Plans - The Company and certain subsidiaries sponsor termination and retirement benefit plans that cover substantially all employees. Benefits are based on the employee's years of service, position and performance. If the termination is involuntary or caused by death, the employee is usually entitled to greater payments than in the case of voluntary termination.

The Company and certain subsidiaries have a contributory defined retirement benefit plan and several unfunded termination plans administered by the Company and certain subsidiaries. Benefits under the contributory defined retirement benefit plan are usually paid in a lump sum at the earlier of termination or retirement, although periodic payments are available under certain conditions. Benefits under the other termination and retirement benefit plan are paid either as lump-sum payments or periodic payments under certain conditions. The benefits are usually paid as a lump-sum payment, if the employee resigns before the mandatory retirement age.

Contributory Defined Retirement Benefit Plan - The following provides a reconciliation of benefit obligations, plan assets and funded status of the plans:

The unrecognized net actuarial loss and prior service benefit are being amortized over 12 years (the average remaining service life of active participants) using the declining-balance method and the straight-line method, respectively.

Other changes in plan assets and benefit obligations recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were as follows:

	Millions of Yen

The estimated amounts that will be amortized from accumulated other comprehensive income into net periodic benefit cost over the next year are summarized as follows:

	Millions of Yen
Actuarial gain	¥(454)
Prior service benefit	(491)

The Company and certain subsidiaries use a measurement date of March 31 for their plans. The weighted-average assumptions used as of March 31 in computing the benefit obligations shown above were as follows:

	2015	2014
Discount rate	1.0%	1.3%
Rate of increase in future compensation	0.0%	0.0%

The weighted-average assumptions used as of March 31 in computing the net periodic benefit cost shown above were as follows:

	2015	2014	2013
Discount rate	1.3%	1.2%	1.9%
Rate of increase in future compensation	0.0%	0.0%	0.0%
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	2.5%	2.5%	2.5%

The Company's approach to establishing the discount rate is based upon corporate bond indices. The discount rate assumption is based upon the effective yields as of March 31, 2015 on the corporate bond indices whose maturity dates approximate the timing of the expected future benefit payments.

The expected long-term rate of return on plan assets is derived proportionally from return assumptions determined for each of the major asset classes. The return expectations for each of the asset classes are based largely on assumptions about economic growth and inflation, which are supported by long-term historical data. The estimated long-term rate of return is based on an asset allocation of equity securities of 26.0%, debt securities of 54.0%, life insurance company general accounts of 18.0% and short-term financing of 2.0%.

The Company and certain subsidiaries' investment strategy is to maintain actual asset weightings within a preset range of target allocations. The Company and certain subsidiaries investments are broadly diversified, consisting primarily of equity and debt securities. The Company and certain subsidiaries' believe these ranges represent an appropriate risk profile for the planned benefit payments of the plans based on the timing of the estimated benefit payment.

The asset allocation as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, was as follows:

	2015	2014
Equity securities	49.4%	43.1%
Debt securities	29.8%	36.6%
Life insurance company general accounts	12.0%	13.6%
Real estate	1.4%
Short-term financing	7.4%	6.7%

The target allocation percentages are reviewed and approved by the Pension Committee. The actual allocations for 2015 and 2014 are different from the target allocation percentages primarily because Wacoal Corp. maintained additional equity securities within a separate plan asset which is assigned to the plan based on an agreement between Wacoal Corp. and its employees and is not governed by the Pension Committee. As such, the actual allocation percentage of equity securities to the total plan assets is higher than the target allocation, and similarly, the actual allocation for some other types of assets is lower than the target allocation.

The following tables present the Company and certain subsidiaries' plan assets using the fair value hierarchy as of March 31, 2015 and 2014. The fair value hierarchy has three levels based on the reliability of the inputs used to determine fair value. For the reference to each level, see Note 21.

This class includes approximately 38% of corporate bonds, 36% of insurance swaps and 26% of short-term financing as of March 31, 2014.

Equity securities and debt securities presented in Level 1 are primarily valued using a market approach based on the quoted market prices of identical instruments. Pooled funds in equity securities or debt securities and hedge funds which are categorized in Level 2 are valued by the sponsor of the funds primarily based on quoted prices in both active and inactive market for identical instruments which comprise funds. Life insurance company general accounts include contracts with the insurance companies with guaranteed rate of return and capital, and those values are based on the sum of original value and return.

The Company and certain subsidiaries' funding policy for the funded plans is to contribute amounts computed in accordance with actuarial methods accepted by Japanese tax law. The Company and certain subsidiaries expect to contribute \(\frac{\pmathbf{1}}{1},260\) million to their plans in the year ending March 31, 2016.

The following benefit payments, which reflect expected future services, as appropriate, are expected to be paid:

Year Ending March 31	Millions of Yen
2016	¥1,923
2017	1,966
2018	1,989
2019	2,070
2020	1,989

Defined Contribution Plan - Certain subsidiaries have defined contribution plans. The amounts of cost recognized for their contributions to the plan were \(\frac{4}{2}03\) million, \(\frac{4}{196}\) million and \(\frac{4}{193}\) million for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Employee Early Retirement Program - The Company and certain subsidiaries provide additional benefits to employees that elect to participate in the Company and certain subsidiaries' early retirement program. Retirement benefits of ¥114 million, ¥228 million and ¥280 million were paid in addition to normal benefits and charged to selling, general and administrative expenses for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Termination Plan for Directors - The Company had and certain subsidiaries have termination plans for directors. Payment of termination benefits to directors is made in a lump sum upon termination and requires the approval of the shareholders before payment. In June 2005, the Company rescinded its termination plan for directors upon the approval of its shareholders. The amount of benefit for each individual was fixed as of June 29, 2005 and will remain frozen until the retirement of each respective director. The outstanding liabilities were \mathbb{3}39 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, and were recorded in other long-term liabilities. Subsidiaries still maintain plans for their directors. In accordance with the guidance for determination of vested benefit obligation for a defined benefit pension plan, the subsidiaries recorded a liability for termination benefits for directors at the amount that would be needed if all directors were to resign at each balance sheet date. The liabilities for termination benefits for directors as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 were \mathbb{2}218 million, and were included in liability for termination and retirement benefits.

13. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Company entered into a construction supervision contract and construction contract of \(\xi\)6,395 million, in connection with the office that was established in Minami-ku, Kyoto on October 20, 2014. The Company had contractual obligations of \(\xi\)5,763 million as of March 31, 2015.

14. EQUITY

Japanese companies are subject to the Companies Act of Japan (the "Companies Act"). The significant provisions in the Companies Act that affect financial and accounting matters are summarized below:

(a) Dividends

Under the Companies Act, companies can pay dividends at any time during the fiscal year in addition to the year-end dividend upon resolution at the shareholders meeting. For companies that meet certain criteria, the Board of Directors may declare dividends (except for dividends in kind) at any time during the fiscal year if the companies have prescribed so in its articles of incorporation. The Company meets all the above criteria.

The Companies Act permits companies to distribute dividends in kind (noncash assets) to shareholders subject to a certain limitation and additional requirements.

Semiannual interim dividends may also be paid once a year upon resolution by the Board of Directors if the articles of incorporation of the companies so stipulate. The Companies Act provides certain limitations on the amounts available for dividends or the purchase of treasury stock. The limitation is defined as the amount available for distribution to the shareholders, but the amount of net assets after dividends must be maintained at no less than \(\frac{1}{2}\)3 million.

(b) Increases/decreases and transfer of common stock, reserve and surplus

The Companies Act requires that an amount equal to 10% of dividends must be appropriated as a legal reserve (a component of retained earnings) or as additional paid-in capital (a component of capital surplus) depending on the equity account charged upon the payment of such dividends until the total of aggregate amount of legal reserve and additional paid-in capital equals 25% of the common stock. Under the Companies Act, the total amount of additional paid-in capital and legal reserve may be reversed without limitation. The Companies Act also provides that common stock, legal reserve, additional paid-in capital, other capital surplus and retained earnings can be transferred among the accounts under certain conditions upon resolution of the shareholders.

(c) Treasury stock

The Companies Act also provides for companies to purchase treasury stock and dispose of such treasury stock by resolution of the Board of Directors. The amount of treasury stock purchased cannot exceed the amount available for distribution to the shareholders which is determined by a specific formula.

During the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, changes in Wacoal Holdings Corp.'s additional paid-in capital due to equity transactions with noncontrolling interest shareholders were as follows:

	Millions of Yen
	2015	2014
Net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. Increase in Wacoal Holdings Corp.'s additional paid-in capital due to transfers of Wacoal Holdings Corp.'s ownership	¥ 8,444	¥ 10,106 interests in its subsidiaries from noncontrolling interests	0	4
Change in net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. and transfers from noncontrolling interests	¥ 8,444	¥ 10,110

15. SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company adopted an annual stock option plan in the year ended March 31, 2009. Under the stock option plan, the Company granted shares of its common stock to directors of the Company excluding outside directors and directors of the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Wacoal Corp., in the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013. The Company believes that such awards better align the interests of its directors with those of its shareholders, by sharing both risk and return from fluctuations in stock prices and giving motivation to enhance its corporate value. Each stock option is exercisable to acquire 1,000 shares of the Company's common stock at ¥1 per share. The compensation cost is measured at fair value on the grant date. Options vest over one year in proportion to the services rendered by the directors, and are exercisable from the day after the date of retirement up to (i) 20 years from the grant date or (ii) 5 years from the day after the date of retirement, whichever is earlier.

The fair value of the options is estimated by using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions.

Expected dividend yield is based on the actual payout of dividends in the last fiscal year and the closing price of the Company's common stock on the grant date. Expected volatility is based on the historical volatility of the Company's share price over the most recent period commensurate with the expected term of the Company's stock options. Risk-free interest rate is based on the Japanese government bonds yield curve in effect at the time of grant for a period commensurate with the expected term of the Company's share options. Expected term of options granted is based on the average remaining service period of directors, assuming that those who are granted options will render service until the stated retirement date and they will exercise options immediately after their retirement.

	2015	2014	2013
Expected dividend yield	3.2%	2.8%	3.2%
Expected volatility	18.7%	20.6%	22.5%
Risk-free interest rate	0.1%	0.1%	0.1%
Expected term	3.1 years	2.8 years	3.1 years

A summary of stock option activities under the plan for the year ended March 31, 2015, was as follows:

Income taxes in Japan applicable to the Companies, imposed by the national, prefectural and municipal governments, in the aggregate resulted in a normal effective statutory tax rate of approximately 35.6% for the year ended March 31, 2015 and approximately 38.0% for the years ended March 31, 2014 and 2013. Foreign subsidiaries are subject to income taxes of the countries in which they operate.

The Companies are subject to a number of different taxes based on income. The effective income tax rates differed from the normal statutory tax rates for the following reasons for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013:

	2015	2014	2013
Normal Japanese statutory tax rates	35.6%	38.0%	38.0%

Changes in Japanese income tax rates	(10.7)	1.6
Other - net	(1.4)	0.0	(3.5)
Effective tax rates	29.0%	37.5%	34.5%

Amendments to the Japanese tax regulations were issued on March 31, 2014. As a result of these amendments, the statutory income tax rate was reduced from 38.0% to 35.6% effective from the year beginning April 1, 2014. Consequently, the statutory income tax rate utilized for deferred tax assets and liabilities expected to be settled or realized in the period from April 1, 2014 is 35.6%. The adjustment of deferred tax assets and liabilities for this change in the tax rate resulted in an increase of income taxes by \cdot\frac{4}{255}$ million and has been reflected in income taxes in the consolidated statements of income for the year ended March 31, 2014.

Following the amendments described above, new amendments, the Act on the Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act, etc. (Act No. 9 of 2015) and the Act on the Partial Revision of Local Tax Act, etc. (Act No. 2 of 2015), were issued on March 31, 2015, and the corporate tax rate will be lowered starting from the consolidated fiscal year beginning on and after April 1, 2015. Accordingly, from the end of the current fiscal year, with respect to the Company and our major domestic subsidiaries, the effective statutory tax rate used for the calculation of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities has been changed from the current 35.6% to 33.1% for the temporary differences which are expected to reverse during the consolidated fiscal year beginning April 1, 2015 and to 32.3% for the temporary differences which are expected to reverse in and after the consolidated fiscal year beginning April 1, 2016.

Due to this tax rate change, the deferred income taxes recognized in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 decreased by \(\frac{\pmathbf{\frac{4}}}{1},209\) million as a result of a reversal of the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities.

The approximate effect of temporary differences and tax loss carryforwards that gave rise to deferred tax balances as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 were as follows:

The valuation allowance decreased by ¥1,481 million and ¥193 million for the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

On November 28, 2014, the Company resolved a restructuring plan for its group organization. Based on the resolution, most of assets and liabilities of Lecien Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the company, were transferred to a newly established subsidiary, and Wacoal Corp., another wholly-owned subsidiary of the company, merged Lecien Corp. with the remainder of their assets and liabilities on April 1, 2015.

In conjunction with the merger, deferred tax assets for temporary differences concerning the merged assets and liabilities and tax loss carryforwards were transferred from Lecien Corp. to Wacoal Corp., Such deferred tax assets which had been fully covered by a valuation allowance due to the poor operating results of Lecien Corp. However, as a result of considering the change in the realizability of deferred tax assets triggered by the resolution, the Company reversed ¥1,398 million of valuation allowance and recognized the same amount of income tax benefit for the year ended March 31, 2015.

The Companies reversed a part of its valuation allowance and utilized ¥811 million and ¥847 million of tax loss carryforwards, and recognized tax benefits of ¥246 million and ¥226 million for the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

As of March 31, 2015, certain subsidiaries had tax loss carryforwards, which are available to offset future taxable income of such subsidiaries, expiring as follows:

Year ending March 31	Millions of Yen
2016	¥ 170
2017	370

There was no portion of undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries and foreign corporate joint ventures which was deemed to be permanently invested as of March 31, 2015 and 2014.

A reconciliation of beginning and ending amounts of unrecognized tax benefits was as follows:

	ľ	Millions of Yen
	2015	2014	2013
Balance at the beginning of the year Additions based on tax positions related to the current year Reductions for tax positions of prior years	¥ 296 16	¥ 313 133 (150)	¥ 267 46
Balance at the end of the year	¥ 312	¥ 296	¥ 313

The total amount of unrecognized tax benefits that, if recognized, would affect the effective tax rate is \\ \pm 312 \) million, \\ \\ \pm 296 \) million and \\\ \\ \\ \ 313 \) million as of March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The Companies recognize interest and penalties accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in income taxes in the consolidated statements of income. Total amounts of interest and penalties recognized in the consolidated statements of income for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 were not material.

The Companies file income tax returns in Japan and various foreign tax jurisdictions. In Japan, the Companies are no longer subject to regular income tax examinations by the tax authorities for years before 2012 with few exceptions. For other countries, the Companies are no longer subject to regular income tax examinations by the tax authorities for years before 2006 with few exceptions. In the year ended March 31, 2009, the transfer pricing examinations of certain domestic subsidiaries' 2002 to 2007 fiscal years and certain U.S. subsidiaries' 2004 and 2003 fiscal years were completed.

18. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Companies purchase merchandise from numerous suppliers throughout the world, including certain affiliated companies of the Companies. The Companies purchased merchandise from affiliated companies in the amount of ¥2,581 million, ¥2,375 million and ¥2,353 million in the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The accounts payable to affiliated companies were ¥142 million and ¥220 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The Companies also sell supplies, materials and products to certain affiliated companies. Aggregate sales to affiliated companies were \(\frac{\pmaterial}{3}\)86 million, \(\frac{\pmaterial}{3}\)42 million and \(\frac{\pmaterial}{3}\)81 million in the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The accounts receivable from affiliated companies were \(\frac{\pmaterial}{7}\)0 million and \(\frac{\pmaterial}{5}\)8 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The Companies earn royalties from the use of the Wacoal Brand by certain affiliated companies. The amount of royalty revenue earned was ¥288 million, ¥248 million and ¥247 million in the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Other accounts receivable from affiliated companies, which are included in other current assets in the consolidated balance sheets, were ¥219 million and ¥188 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

19. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. per share has been computed by dividing net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during each year. Diluted net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. per share assumes the dilution that could occur if share-based option to issue common stock were exercised.

The weighted-average number of common shares outstanding used in the computations of basic net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. per share was 140,839,059 shares, 140,841,722 shares and 140,846,298 shares for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The weighted-average number of diluted common shares outstanding used in the computations of diluted net income attributable to Wacoal Holdings Corp. per share was 141,203,998 shares, 141,135,395 shares and 141,070,568 shares for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

20. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts and fair values of financial instruments as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 were as follows:

	Millions of Yen
	20	15	2014
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value

Total liabilities	¥ (4,779)	¥ (4,780)	¥ (1,518)	¥ (1,519)

There are investments in nonmarketable equity securities and debt securities for which there are no readily determinable fair values. See Note 3 for further information. The carrying amounts of all other financial instruments approximate their estimated fair values because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Foreign Exchange Contracts - The Companies are exposed to foreign currency exchange risks on the transactions denominated in foreign currencies relating to its ongoing business operations. Such risks are primarily managed by using foreign currency exchange contracts. The Companies measure forward currency exchange contracts at the fair value since they are not designated as hedge.

Marketable Securities and Investments - Held-to-maturity debt securities are classified as marketable securities and investments as of March 31, 2015 and as investments as of March 31, 2014, respectively. The fair value of these held-to-maturity debt securities are classified as Level 1. For all other investments included in marketable securities and investments, see Notes 3 and 21.

Long-Term Debt - The fair values for long-term debt are estimated by discounted cash flow analysis, using rates currently available for similar types of borrowings with similar terms and remaining maturities. The estimated fair value is based on Level 2 input.

Limitations - Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instruments. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk - The Companies' business consists primarily of sales of women's intimate apparel to a large number of diverse customers in the Japanese retail industry, which include well-established department stores, general merchandise stores and other general retailers and specialty stores. No single customer constitutes 10.0% or more of the total sales, although the general retail customers that are consolidated companies within the Aeon Group collectively accounted for approximately 8.9%, 10.0% and 9.1% of the total sales in fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

21. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The guidance for fair value measurements defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The guidance establishes a three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 Inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Inputs are quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3 Inputs are unobservable.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 were as follows:

	Millions of Yen
2015	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Marketable securities and investments presented in Level 1 are valued using an unadjusted quoted market price in active markets with sufficient volume and frequency of transactions. Bonds presented in Level 2 are valued by the financial institution using quoted market price for identical instruments in markets that are not active and mutual funds presented in Level 2 are valued by the financial institution based on quoted prices in both active and inactive market for identical instruments which comprise funds.

As presented in Note 3, the Companies recorded impairment charges on marketable securities and investments if a decline in fair value of marketable securities and investments is determined to be other than temporary.

Derivative instruments are composed of foreign currency exchange contracts. Financial instruments presented in Level 2 are valued using quotes obtained from third parties.

The changes in the fair value of the foreign currency exchange contracts are recorded in earnings, since the foreign currency exchange contracts are not designated as a hedge. The Companies recognized a gain of ¥192 million, ¥5 million and ¥40 million in other - net of other income (expenses) in the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The Companies recorded the derivative instruments as other current assets in the consolidated balance sheets at fair value of \(\frac{4}{2}09\) million as of March 31, 2015. The derivative instruments are presented as other current assets and other current liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets at fair value of \(\frac{4}{1}8\) million and \(\frac{4}{1}1\) million as of March 31, 2014, respectively.

Assets Measured at Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis

Assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis as of March 31, 2015 were as follows:

	Millions of Yen
2015	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total	Total Losses
Goodwill (Note 8) Trademarks (Note 8)			¥ 4,325 1,994	¥ 4,325 1,994	¥ (4,845) (1,176)
					¥ (6,021)

As of the end of March 31, 2015, goodwill with a carrying amount of $9,170 million was written down to its implied fair value of $4,325 million, resulting in an impairment charge of $4,845 million, which is included in earnings for the year ended March 31, 2015. The impairment arose due to the decline in its fair value, which was mainly caused by a downturn in consumption due to general market conditions. To measure the fair values of the reporting units, the Companies used the expected present value of future cash flows and incorporated relevant unobservable inputs, such as management's internal assumptions about future cash flows and appropriately risk-adjusted discount rates, which reflected the management's estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset in an arm's length transaction as of the measurement date.

Trademarks with a carrying amount of \(\frac{\pmath{\text{\text{\gamma}}}}{3,170}\) million as of March 31, 2015, were written down to their fair values of \(\frac{\pmath{\text{\gamma}}}{1,994}\) million, resulting in recognition of an impairment charge of \(\frac{\pmath{\pmath{\gamma}}}{1,176}\) million for the year ended March 31, 2015. The impairment arose due to the decline in their fair value, which was mainly caused by a downturn in consumption due to general market conditions. To measure the fair value of the trademarks, the Companies used the relief-from royalty method and incorporated relevant unobservable inputs, such as management's internal assumptions about future cash flows, the rate of royalty, and appropriately risk-adjusted discount rate, which reflected the management's estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset in an arm's length transaction as of the measurement date. Future cash flows were based on the management's cash flow projections for the future five years, and after five years, future cash flows were estimated using the perpetuity growth rate of 0%. The management's cash flow projections were developed using estimates for expected future revenue growth rates, profit margins and working capital levels of the reporting units. The rate of royalty used for the valuation was based on the actual royalty ratio used in transactions. The risk-adjusted discount rate represents a weighted-average cost of capital (WACC) adjusted for inherent risk spread.

There were no significant assets or liabilities that were measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis as of March 31, 2014.

As of the end of March 31, 2013, goodwill with a carrying amount of $10,367 million was written down to its implied fair value of $9,170 million, resulting in an impairment charge of $1,197 million, which is included in earnings for the year ended March 31, 2013. The impairment arose due to the decline in its fair value, which was mainly caused by a downturn in consumption due to general market conditions. To measure the fair values of the reporting units, the Companies used the expected present value of future cash flows and incorporated relevant unobservable inputs, such as management's internal assumptions about future cash flows and appropriately risk-adjusted discount rates, which reflected the management's estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset in an arm's length transaction as of the measurement date.

Trademarks with a carrying amount of ¥4,757 million as of March 31, 2013, were written down to their fair values of ¥3,170 million, resulting in recognition of an impairment charge of ¥1,587 million for the year ended March 31, 2013. The impairment arose due to the decline in their fair value, which was mainly caused by a downturn in consumption due to general market conditions. To measure the fair value of the trademarks, the Companies used the relief-from royalty method and incorporated relevant unobservable inputs, such as management's internal assumptions about future cash flows, the rate of royalty, and appropriately risk-adjusted discount rate, which reflected the management's estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset in an arm's length transaction as of the measurement date. Future cash flows were based on the management's cash flow projections for the future five years, and after five years, future cash flows were estimated using the perpetuity growth rate of 0%. The management's cash flow projections were developed using estimates for expected future revenue growth rates, profit margins and working capital levels of the reporting units. The rate of royalty used for the valuation was based on the actual royalty ratio used in transactions. The risk-adjusted discount rate represents a weighted-average cost of capital (WACC) adjusted for inherent risk spread.

Customer relationships with a carrying amount of ¥361 million as of March 31, 2013 were written down to their fair value of ¥293 million, resulting in recognition of impairment charges of ¥68 million for the year ended March 31, 2013. The impairments recorded for this year arose due to the decline in their fair value, which were mainly caused by a downturn in consumption because of general market conditions. To measure the fair values of the customer relationships, the Companies used the excess earnings method and incorporated relevant unobservable inputs, such as management's internal assumptions about future cash flows, the percentage of orders that the Companies expect to receive from the customers existing at the point of acquisition and appropriately risk-adjusted discount rate, which reflected the management's estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset in a current transaction as of the measurement date. The future cash flows were projected in the same way as described in the trademarks. The percentage of orders that the Companies expect to receive from the customers existing at the point of acquisition was estimated based on the historical trend of the percentage of sales to the preacquisition customers. A risk-adjusted discount rate representing a WACC was determined using the capital asset pricing model.

Valuation process:

The valuation process involved in Level 3 measurements for applicable asset and liability is governed by the valuation policies and procedures, including evaluation method for fair value measurements, pre-approved by the Companies. Based on the policies and procedures, either personnel from the accounting division or personnel in charge of valuation determine the valuation model to be utilized to measure each asset and liability at fair value. We engage independent external experts of valuation to assist us in the valuation process for certain assets over a specific amount, and their results of valuations are reviewed by the responsible personnel. All the valuations including those performed by the external experts are reviewed and approved by the management of the Company before being recorded in the general ledger.

Quantitative information regarding Level 3 fair value measurements:

Information about valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs used for Level 3 assets measured at fair value for the year ended March 31, 2015 is as follows:

22. SEGMENT INFORMATION

Operating Segment Information

The Companies have three reportable segments: "Wacoal business (domestic)," "Wacoal business (overseas)," and "Peach John," which are based on their locations and brands. These segments represent components of the Companies for which separate financial information is available and for which operating profit (loss) is reviewed regularly by the chief operating decision maker in deciding how to allocate the Companies' resources and in assessing their performance. The accounting policies used for these reportable segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies in Note 1.

"Wacoal business (domestic)" segment primarily produces and sells innerwear (consisting of foundation, lingerie, nightwear and children's innerwear), outerwear, sportswear and hosiery. "Wacoal business (overseas)" segment produces and sells innerwear (consisting of foundation, lingerie, nightwear and children's innerwear), outerwear, sportswear and hosiery. "Peach John" segment produces and sells innerwear (consisting of foundation, lingerie, nightwear and children's innerwear, and other textile-related products, which are sold under the "Peach John" brand. "Other" segment produces and sells innerwear (consisting of foundation, lingerie, nightwear and children's innerwear), outerwear, sportswear, other textile-related products, mannequins and construction of stores and interior design.

Information about operating results and assets for each segment as of and for the years ended March 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 is as follows:

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Wacoal Holdings Corp. Kyoto, Japan

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Wacoal Holdings Corp. and its subsidiaries (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended March 31, 2015 (all expressed in Japanese yen), and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended March 31, 2015, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Convenience Translation

Our audits also comprehended the translation of the Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made in conformity with the basis stated in Note 2. The translation of the financial statement amounts into U.S. dollars has been made solely for convenience of readers outside of Japan.

Report on Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Notwithstanding the second paragraph of the "Auditors' Responsibility" section, we have performed an audit of management's report on internal control over financial reporting ("ICFR") under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan. A translated copy of management's report on ICFR along with a translated copy of our report is included within this Annual Securities Report as information for readers.

NOTE TO READERS:

Following is an English translation of the Independent Auditors' Report filed under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan. This report is presented merely as supplemental information.

There are differences between an audit of internal control over financial reporting ("ICFR") under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act ("ICFR under FIEA") and one conducted under the attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA").

In an audit of ICFR under FIEA, the auditors express an opinion on management's report on ICFR, and do not express an opinion on the Company's ICFR directly. In an audit of ICFR under the attestation standards established by the AICPA, the auditors express an opinion on the Company's ICFR directly. Also in an audit of ICFR under FIEA, there is detailed guidance on the scope of an audit of ICFR, such as quantitative guidance on business units selection and/or account selection. In an audit of ICFR under the attestation standards established by the AICPA, there is no such detailed guidance. Accordingly, based on the quantitative guidance which provides an approximate measure for the scope of assessment of internal control over business process, we used a measure of approximately 70% of total assets on a consolidated basis and income before income taxes on a consolidated basis for the selection of significant business units.

Audit of Financial Statements

Pursuant to the first paragraph of Article 193-2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, we have audited the consolidated financial statements included in the Financial Section, namely, the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2015 of Wacoal Holdings Corp. and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Company"), and the consolidated statement of income, comprehensive income, equity and cash flows for the fiscal year from April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America pursuant to the third paragraph of the Supplementary Provisions of the Cabinet Office Ordinance for Partial Amendment of the Regulations for Terminology, Forms and Preparation Methods of Consolidated Financial Statements (No. 11 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance in 2002), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Audit Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of March 31, 2015, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Audit of Internal Control

Pursuant to the second paragraph of Article 193-2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, we have audited management's report on internal control over financial reporting of the Company as of March 31, 2015.

Management's Responsibility for the Report on Internal Control

Management is responsible for designing and operating effective internal control over financial reporting and for the preparation and fair presentation of its report on internal control in accordance with assessment standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan. There is a possibility that misstatements may not be completely prevented or detected by internal control over financial reporting.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's report on internal control based on our internal control audit. We conducted our internal control audit in accordance with auditing standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether management's report on internal control is free from material misstatement.

An internal control audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the results of the assessment of internal control over financial reporting in management's report on internal control. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the significance of effects on reliability of financial reporting. An internal control audit includes examining representations on the scope, procedures and results of the assessment of internal control over financial reporting made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of management's report on internal control.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, management's report on internal control over financial reporting referred to above, which represents that the internal control over financial reporting of the Company as of March 31, 2015 is effectively maintained, presents fairly, in all material respects, the results of the assessment of internal control over financial reporting in accordance with assessment standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan.

Interest

Our firm and the engagement partners do not have any interest in the Company for which disclosure is required under the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act.

The above represents a translation, for convenience only, of the original report issued in the Japanese language.

MANAGEMENT'S ANNUAL REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING (TRANSLATION)

NOTE TO READERS

Following is an English translation of management's report on internal control over financial ("ICFR") filed under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan. This report is presented merely as supplemental information.

There are differences between the management assessment of ICFR under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act ("ICFR under FIEA") and one conducted under the attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA").

In the management assessment of ICFR under FIEA, there is detailed guidance on the scope of management assessment of ICFR such as quantitative guidance on business units selection and/or account selection. In the management assessment of ICFR under the attestation standards established by the AICPA, there is no such detailed guidance. Accordingly based on the quantitative guidance which provides an approximately measure for the scope of assessment of internal control over business processes, we designated the business units that accounted for approximately two-thirds of the aggregated sales for the previous fiscal year on a consolidated basis as "significant business units" which should be subject to the process-level controls.

1. [Matters Relating to the Basic Framework for Internal Control over Financial Reporting]

Yoshikata Tsukamoto, President and Representative Director, Masaya Wakabayashi, Managing Director, are responsible for the designing and operating effective internal control over financial reporting of Wacoal Holdings Corp. (the "Company"), and have designed and operated internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the basic framework for internal control set forth in "The Standards and Practice Standards for Management Assessment and Audit of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting" published by the Business Accounting Council.

The internal control is designed to achieve its objectives to the extent reasonable through the effective function and combination of its basic elements. Therefore, there is a possibility that misstatements may not be completely prevented or detected by internal control over financial reporting.

2. [Matters Relating to Scope of Assessment, the Assessment Date, and Assessment Procedures]

The assessment of internal control over financial reporting was performed as of March 31, 2015. The assessment was performed in accordance with assessment standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan.

In conducting this assessment, we evaluated internal controls which may have a material effect on the entire financial reporting in a consolidation ("company-level controls") and based on the result of this assessment, we appropriately selected business processes to be evaluated, analyzed these selected business processes, identified key controls that may have a material impact on the reliability of our financial reporting, and assessed the design and operation of these key controls. These procedures have allowed us to evaluate the effectiveness of its internal controls.

We determined the required scope of assessment of internal control over financial reporting for the Company, as well as its consolidated subsidiaries and equity-method affiliated companies, from the perspective of the materiality that may affect the reliability of our financial reporting. The materiality that may affect the reliability of the financial reporting is determined taking into account the materiality of quantitative and qualitative impacts. We confirmed that we had reasonably determined the scope of assessment of internal controls over business processes in light of the results of assessment of company-level controls conducted for the Company, its consolidated subsidiaries and equity-method affiliated companies. We did not include those consolidated subsidiaries and equity-method affiliated companies which do not have any quantitatively or quantitatively material impact on the consolidated financial statements in the scope of assessment of company-level controls.

Regarding the scope of assessment of internal control over business processes, we designated the business locations that accounted for approximately two-thirds of the aggregated sales for the previous fiscal year on a consolidated basis as "significant business locations" which should be subject to the process-level controls.

At the selected significant business units, we included, in the scope of assessment, those business processes leading to sales or accounts receivable and inventories, as significant accounts that may have a material impact on the business objectives of us. Further, not only at selected significant business units, but also at other business units, we added to the scope assessment, as business processes having greater materiality considering their impact on the financial reporting, (1) those business processes relating to greater likelihood of material misstatements and significant account involving estimates and the management's judgment, and (2) those business processes relating to businesses or operations dealing with high-risk transactions.

3. [Matters Relating to the Results of Assessment]

As a result of the assessment above, we concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was effective as of March 31, 2015.

4. [Supplementary Matters]
